Warning Sign For Pacifica Death Row

Fog Conditions Blamed for Crash

(See Editorial, Page 10)

The State Division of Highways is planning to install special warning signs along the stretch of Skyline Boulevard where a Pacifica teacher was killed Wednesday.

The stretch of highway is frequently fogbound, especially in the morning during the summer months. Highway patrolmen said the warning signs will be constructed so that they can be changed when fog conditions are such that speed limits should be reduced.

An estimated 30 cars crashed in the fog during the morning commute period Wednesday. In addition to the fatality, at least six persons were hurt. Reports were taken involving 13 autos but there were some minor accidents in which the cars were driven away after the drivers exchanged names.

Killed was Jean Marie Medeiros, 33, 430 Norfolk Lane, Pacifica, a teacher at St. Peter's Parochial School in San Francisco. Deputy Coroner Robert Cole said her father, George Medeiros of Hawaii, flew here to make funeral arangements.

Highway Patrolman Don Weber said the whole thing started with a three-car accident that blocked the road. Flares were put out.

'Topless' Suit Ban For GOP

The topless evening gown and bathing suit made a "brief" appearance at the Republican National Convention Monday.

Sheriff's Deputy Harold Francis put a quick stop to a fashion show sponsored by the Young Republicans in the south cattle barn of the Cow Palace.

The show featured four young ladies modelling the controversial attire.

Francis said that several persons had complained to him and Sheriff Earl Whitmore about the show, which had attracted a large audience.

Gary Geis, co-chairman of the entertainment committee, had contracted with Pete Moreno of the Melody Sales, San Francisco, to provide entertainment.

He had no idea what it was going to be, but he thought it would be of a musical nature.

Moreno told police he thought the gathering was going to be a cocktail party for about 300 delegates.

He didn't think the affair would have the attendance that it did.

Daly City Raps County Board

HEARING IN AUGUST

District Split Wins 5-4, 7-5

In two close votes Thursday night in Daly City, the augmented San Mateo County Committee on School Reorganization decided tentatively to split the Jefferson Union High School District into two separate unified districts.

A final vote on the proposal will be taken next month.

By a 5-4 count, the committee voted to create one district composed of the Laguna Salada Elementary School District and the southern half of the high school district.

The committee then voted 7-5 to create the second district out of elementary boards of Jefferson, Brisbane and Bayshore and the northern half of the high school district.

Although the votes were close there was little debate on a split. There was considerable discussion, however, on provisions for setting a tax rate, assuming bonded indebtedness, splitting assets and of the districts involved and determining the composition of the board.

The committee rejected a proposal by Laguna Salada Board Chairman Ruth Boudinot to set the tax rate for the proposed southern district at $4.70 per $100 of assessed valuation.

The effect of the proposal would have been to increase school taxes of Laguna Salada residents by 25 cents to $4.70.

JUHS Hopes Brightened

There's hope that the Jefferson High School District will not be split as proposed by the San Mateo County Committee on School Reorganization, according to Supt. Edward P. Morgan.

Morgan reported to high school board that the State Board of Education last week rejected proposed splits of two existing high school districts in other parts of the state.

He said the state board criticized the county committee for proposing such splits when the state legislature has registered its opposition to them.

The rejected splits were of the Whittier High School District and of the East Side High School District in Santa Clara County.

The Jefferson High School has been solidly opposed to the proposed split since discussion

Hickey Takes Only 7 Homes

County engineers said last week that only seven homes would be taken by the right-of-way in the extension of Hickey Boulevard through West Winston Manor in South San Francisco.

Six more residential lots and three lots used for recreation will be "affected," a spokesman said.

Several West Winston Manor residents voiced opposition to the proposed road last week and presented a map outlining the legal description in the council's resolution.

The spokesman said the inclusion of the six additional lots

Mayor Scores 'Half Streets'

The Daly City city council Monday night cast a dour look at the trends now being established by the county's Local Agency Formation Commission.

Mayor Micheal DeBernardi said the commission is approving annexation applications that include several "half streets," something the Daly City city council has been against because of the possibility of the remainder of the street never being completed.

DeBernardi asked City Attorney Paul Hupf to explore all legal means of halting the practice insofar as Daly City is affected.

The mayor said the city has had to go back to the developers several times to get binding agreements that would prevent construction of incomplete streets.

"What results is a lot of work," he said, "that subsequently costs us extra money."

Hupf said that the legislature took away a good part of the cities' powers when the Local Agency Formation Commission was formed last year.

He suggested, however, that he talk to each of the commissioners personally to find out if there is any rationale to the trends being established and to voice Daly City's objection to them.

"If that fails," the attorney

City Applies For U.S. Aid

President Lyndon B. Johnson signed a $320-million Transit Aid Bill into law last week and Daly City immediately applied for grants of $500,000 and $20,000.

Councilman Albert Polonsky said the city has sent applications for the loans to the House and Homes Finance Ageny.

The $20,000 grant will be used to make a survey on the feasibility of Daly City establishing its own municipal system, Polonsky said.

The $500,000 grant will be used to help buy equipment and necessary facilities.

In a letter to John Melville, regional administrator of the federal agency, City Manager Edward Frank asked for all possible speed "as Daly City's transportation situation has

Multimillion Program Told

A multimillion dollar capital improvement program to be made over a six-year period was presented to Pacifica city councilmen last week by City Manager Karl A. Baldwin.

Main item in the program, which would be financed both from tax revenue and bond issues, would be a city-wide drainage program costing between $1,800,000 and $1,900,000.

The program also allocates around $400,000 to acquire a site

Legislator, DeBernardi Greet GOP

Daly City Mayor Micheal DeBernardi and Congressman J. Arthur Younger spoke Monday at the formal opening of the 1964 National Republican Convention at the Cow Palace.

DeBernardi, a Democrat, made an immediate hit with the Republicans when he gave one of the shortest speeches at any convention:

"Welcome to Daly City," he said. "We hope you have a good time."

Congressman Younger's speech was longer and emphasized that the location of the Cow Palace was in Daly City and San Mateo County.

"I can well understand the confusion which you have experienced because all the information, both printed and broadcast, has told you that you were going to a Republican Convention in San Francisco, and now you find that you are in Daly City, San Mateo County."

The congressman said he was accustomed to confusion because

'He Didn't Want to Leave'

Three-year-old Paul Mendez, seven bullet wounds in his body, was on the road to recovery today at Peninsula Hospital.

Meanwhile, his remorseful father, William Mendez, who allegedly pumped the bullets into the boy's small body as the two walked along the railroad right-of-way in South San Franciso early Monday, was arraigned on a charge of assault with intent to commit murder. A preliminary hearing is set for July 23 at 10 a.m. in Northern District Court.

Mendez, 48-year-old merchant seaman, told last week in county jail at Redwood City how he acquired the .25-caliber automatic two months ago for $25 from a man in a San Francisco bar with the intention of killing himself.

Fearing that his two children, Paul and his sister, Seryl, 10, might get hold of the weapon and hurt themselves, Mendez stuck the weapon in his pocket after rising early Monday. He went to the Mission police station in San Francisco with the intention of handing over the weapon to an officer friend, the suspect related.

Fate decreed that the officer wasn't there, and Mendez returned to his sister's home in South San Franciso where he had been staying with his two children.

Mendez had 10 days custody of the youngsters, who normally reside with Mendez's wife, Ruth, and the 10 days were up Monday.

Paul was awake when he returned, Mendez said, and began crying that "he didn't want me to leave him."

The father told how he took the boy out of the house for a walk about 6 a.m. so that the youngster's crying wouldn't awaken the other children in the home.

The boy kept crying that he wanted to stay with him, Mendez said.

As they walked along, Mendez felt the gun in his pocket, he stated.

"I don't know what happened. The next thing I know he was on the ground, bleeding."

The father picked up the boy and ran the three blocks to the house, the youngster sobbing, "Daddy, it hurts; Daddy, it's bleeding."

Mendez said that during the 10 days he had custody of the children he learned that they had been "brainwashed" by his wife to "hate me."

of at least 15 acres for a new civic center, which would eventually hold a new city hall, a municipal auditorium and other improvements. Baldwin estimated the cost of improvements at around $1,250,000, but said the program does not call for construction until around 1970.

The program, whose total cost is expected to range around $7 or $8 million, calls for construction of four or five new branch fire stations, improvements to the city's sewage disposal system, and development of a series of city parks at school sites.

In other actions the council:

Received notice that the State Division of Highways is studying the possibility of placing a fifth lane on the Edgemar Freeway, which has a 7 per cent grade, for slow moving trucks. It was disclosed the state is also investigating the possibility of widening the freeway to six lanes and may also put a truck climbing lane on Route 229 when it is developed cross-county.

Asked City Attorney Conrad Reisch to make a further review of proposed changes in a house moving ordinance.

Informed Joseph McGuigan there is little the city can do to remedy a flooding problem west of Cabrillo Highway in the Sharp Park area north of the golf course until construction begins on the city-wide drainage program.

Heard complaints of abandoned vehicles around the Coast Salvage Company on Palmetto Avenue.

Granted Dr. Roy M. Frank permission to rezone part of his property on Milagra Drive from apartment to commercial to allow construction of an addition to the Cuyler Chevrolet Company.

Approved rezoning of seven acres at the eastern end of Clarendon Road to permit construction of a large condominium development.

Introduced, after a lengthy discussion, a zoning ordinance amendment to allow planned community zones in already zoned areas.

said, "then we should see if we can't enlist the help of other cities."

City Engineer William Chapman said that County Engineer Don Wilson had expressed the opinion that the whole street should always go to the city.

In other business, the council halted construction of a four-story apartment house on Peoria Street and the rezoning of some adjacent parcels because the city's records "were confusing."

The actual zoning of the property could not be determined in a quick search of the city records by the city attorney and he asked for time for a more thorough search.

Developer E. T. Komsthoeft urged quick action saying, "I've bene pouring money into that property like its water."

He said he paid $24,000 to build a road at the council's request from Wellington Avenue to Peoria.

Charles Garry, a resident of the area, said he had no objection to the four-story apartment, but that any further apartment development in that area would cut off his view.

In other action the council:

Received letters of intent from developer Gus Pedemonte to pave all streets in the Chester Manor area and to improve the frontage on Sullivan Avenue north of Eastmoor Avenue.

Tabled an apartment rezoning for property north of A Street and east of El Camino Real until Pedemonte presented plans that would prohibit traffic from having access to a cul-de-sac on First Avenue.

Received a pedestrian safety citation from the California State Automobile Association.

Received notification of a pending express rate increase from Greyhound Bus Lines.

was James H. Owens, 20, 735 Lockhaven Drive, Pacifica, who saw the flares and slammed on the brakes. His car spun out of control, Weber said, but he managed to stop it before it hit anything. While he was trying to get the car straightened out, it was struck from behind by a car driven by Miss Medeiros.

Weber said the two drivers got out to check the damage and at that time her car was hit by an auto driven by Fred S. Schulz, 58-year-old salesman, 1135 Mason Drive, Pacifica.

Schulz, too, got out of his car and in a few seconds it was struck by an auto driven by Jarvis L. Doyle, 24-year-old University of California student, 1459 Rosita Road, Pacifica. Weber said Schulz was knocked down and a wheel of Doyle's car passed over a leg. He apparently was not seriously hurt, however.

A few seconds later, the officer reported, Doyle's car was hit by an auto driven by James E. Richards, 34, 371 Greenway Drive, Pacifica. The cars were pushed forward and Miss Medeiros was crushed between her car and the Schulz auto. She was killed instantly, Weber said.

It never touches a drop.

You couldn't put water in a Volkswagen if you wanted to. Or anti-freeze either.

The VW engine is cooled by air. It doesn't have a radiator. Or any of the usual radiator problems.

No hose to leak or clog or run up costly repair bills.

Nothing to overheat or boil over in hot weather. (You never see a VW cooling off by the side of the road.)

Nothing to freeze in cold weather. The money you save on anti-freeze is a dandy little dividend.

You get more dividends when it comes to gas and oil.

The VW averages 32 miles to the gallon of gas. Sometimes even more. Sometimes a little less. Depending on how you drive.

You can almost forget about oil. The VW rarely needs it between changes.

Tires go a long way, too. Common wear is 40,000 miles.

Maybe that's why so many people are going Volkswagen. It's not a car that spends your money like water.

Committee Chairman Paul Bradley explained later that some members of the committee felt that such an increase in taxes should be determined by the new board.

"We would, in effect, be conducting its business," Bradley said.

Mrs. Boudinot said she felt it would be "more honest" to tell the people that a unified district would cost more money right away than to wait until they've voted for unification and then hit them with a big tax raise.

Mrs. Boudinot also evoked considerable discussion when she proposed that the assets of the high school district be distributed on the basis of average daily attendance figures rather than assessed valuation.

In other words, if one of the new unified districts had 30 per cent of the students in the area comprising the present high school district, then Laguna Salada would get 30 per cent of the assets.

The committee voted to go along with the proposal but instructed its technical staff to compile figures before the committee's final vote is taken in August.

Two proposals by the Jefferson Elementary District on the composition of the proposed northern board were rejected by hte committee.

Trustee Thomas Noonan first asked that the new district have a seven-man board to be elected at large with one trustee from Brisbane, one from Bayshore and five from Jefferson.

Noonan argued that the Jefferson district has about 57,000 residents while a much smaller number live in the Brisbane and Bayshore districts.

When several members of the committee indicated this would be an unfair breakdown, Noonan withdrew the motion and suggested that the seven-man board be elected at-large.

"In other words, take our money and to hell with us," Allan Rigler of the Brisbane board yelled.

Rigler said that in an earlier conversation, Noonan told him that unless trustee area designation was set up, a person from Brisbane or Bayshore would have a difficult time being elected.

After Noonan's proposal was voted down, Rigler suggested a five-man board with one representative each from Brisbane and Bayshore and three from Jefferson. The committee approved the proposal by a 10-2 vote.

Two separate public hearings will be held in August on the two proposed unified districts. The first will be held at 8 p.m. on August 6, at Oceana High School.

The second will be held in the Jefferson High School cafeteria at 8 p.m. August 13.

Final votes by the augmented committee will be taken immediately after the public hearings.

The plan will then be submitted to the State Board of Education for approval.

by the county committee began wto years ago.

The county committee, augmented by the elementary boards of Jefferson, Laguna Salada, Brisbane and Bayshore, however, approved the split last Thursday by 7-5 and 5-4 votes and public hearings are set next month.

Morgan said the state board also approved the first unified districts in San Mateo County —Half Moon Bay and Pescadero.

In other business, the board re-elected its present slate of officers. Elio Fontana will remain as chairman, James Cooper as vice chairman, Anne Eason as clerk and Lyal Ingersoll as trustee representative.

Asst. Supt. Fred Goodell reported on the districts borrowing capacity and indicated that the purchase of school sites in Serramonte and Crocker Estates may not be possible in one year.

He said the district could sell only about half of its $1,910,000 bonds. This may mean that the purchase of one of the schools must wait until the following year.

In other action the board:

Held over discussion of names of the new schools until the next meeting. Each trustee will choose six of the names from the several submitted to cut down the list.

Authorized the sale of tax anticipation notes in the amount of $1.1-million. The district needs the money to operate the schools until December when the first tax payment comes in.

Held over discussion of general district policies.

Heard a report on negotiations with the Jefferson Elementary School District to use the Thornton Elementary School yard as a corporation yard while the high school district's new yard is being built.

CAR VICTIMIZED

Thomas J. Tomasi of 1536 Eastmoor Road, Burlingame, told Daly City police that someone stole a seven-piece cutlery set and five bottles of perfume from his unlocked station wagon while it was parked opposite 575 Templeton Street in Daly City over the weekend. Estimated value was $50.

Canary Thefts Charges Lodged

Daly City police arrested four young boys last week and charged them with stealing 12 canaries from a greenhouse owned by Louis Dieliessen at 356 Woodrow Street.

The boys, ranging in age from 12 to 14 years old, were remanded to juvenile authorities.

Pacifica in New Zoning Ordinance

A draft of a new zoning ordinance tailored to the local needs of Pacifica was presented to planning commissioners by James Supinger, planned administrator, Monday.

Commissioners scheduled a special meeting for Thursday evening to review the new law and a development study recently made of the southeastern corner of the community.

Supinger recommended approval of the new zoning ordinance to replace one now used which was originally based on the county zoning ordinance and which is not designed to specifically meet local needs.

Under the new ordinance zones would be set up to be mutually exclusive of each other, Supinger said, so, for example, residential developments could not be constructed in commercial zones as allowed as present. C-1 zones would be limited to neighborhood commercial zones instead of general commercial zones as present.

Supinger also presented the commission with proposed changes to regulations in apartment house construction to control building groups being built on one site. Under the proposal no apartment building could be built within 20 feet of another, a landscaping plan must be provided, architectual approval must be given by the commission and a use permit must be obtained.

Commissioners, who were meeting in study session, gave tentative approval to the new nine-lot Nutter subdivision north of Linda Mar No. 13.

He pointed out that this convention is the second national convention held at the Cow Palace, "and you will recall that the candidate (Eisenhower) nominated here the first time swept the country and became a second-term president.

3-Way Plan For Pacifica Church Area

A proposal for a three-way program involving the city, the Challenge Construction Company and St. Peter's Catholic Church to improve Rosita Road at the eastern end of Linda Mar Boulevard was made at a study meeting of the Pacifica city council Monday night.

Under the proposal the church would dedicate 34 feet of its property facing the street for additional right of way; the Challenge Construction Company, the successor to the Oddstad Development Company, would construct the eastern half of the street, while the city would improve the western part of the street.

The Rev. Francis Reilly, pastor of St. Peter's, however, said he thought that if the church is required to dedicate the additional street right of way it should be given an equal amount of property along its eastern boundary for compensation.

City officials pointed out that property sought by the church probably will have to be used eventually for an extension of Linda Mar Boulevard.

W. B. Hanna Dead at 49

William B. Hanna, of 23 Carmel Avenue, Daly City, prominent North San Mateo County attorney, died in Santa Rosa at the age of 49.

Active in both legal and political circles, Hanna was vice president of the North San Mateo County Bar Association and a member of the California State Bar Association.

He was a native of Rochester, N. Y. Survivors include his wife, Lorraine; two brothers, Robert Edward and Richard Joseph Hanna, and two sisters, Mrs. Anne Hayes and Mrs. Jane Herbst.

Verducci Spent $31,736 in Race For Board Post

Joseph Verducci, successful candidate for the County Board of Supervisors in the June 2 primary election, spent $31,736 on his campaign—more than three times as much as his three opponents combined.

This is indicated in statements of campaign expenditures filed with County Clerk John A. Bruning before the 5 p.m. deadline last Tuesday. Law requires all candidates to file such statements but provides no penalty for non-winners who do not. Only candidates who failed to file were losers June Conley Barrett and Herman Wadler, who boasts that he didn't spend a cent.

Verducci, who will succeed Alvin S. Hatch as supervisor from the Fifth District, said he spent $1,800 of his own money on the campaign. Most of the rest came from some 250 individual contributors.

Verducci's nearest competitor, Mrs. Jean Fassler, declared expenditures of $8,738 and indicated that her campaign went in the hole. She listed receipts of $6,550, including $500 of her own money.

Two other candidates in the Fifth District race, Hughes Blowers and Charles E. Carter, listed expenditures of $1,160 and $566, respectively.

In the Fourth District supervisorial race, incumbent William M. Werder said he spent $2,035 to get re-elected. His opponent, Nancy Jewell Cross, declared expenditures of $380 and pointed out that $240 of that was for her filing fee.

Other expenditures: W. Mark Sullivan, Democratic nominee for Congress, $1,070; State Senator Richard J. Dolwig, $6,150; Martin J. Sweeney, who beat Mrs. Barrett for the Democratic nomination in the 26th Assembly District, $2,095; Assemblyman Carl Britschgi, who was opposed by Wadler for the Republican nomination in the 26th District, $2,815; Leo J. Ryan, incumbent Democrat in the 27th District, $914; Supervisor James V. Fitzgerald, unopposed in the First District, $950; Congressman J. Arthur Younger, unopposed for the Republican nomination, $2,378; Andrew C. Byrd, who won the Republican nomination in the 27th District, $1,860; Fred W. Ruhland, Byrd's opponent, $3,765; William J. Graham, unopposed for the Democratic nomination for state senator, $159.

MRS. RUTH BOUDINOT was re-elected to a third term as chairman of the board of trustees of the Laguna Salada School District last week. Others named were Robert Hale, chairman pro-tem; Rodney Dailey, clerk and Rodney Clark, clerk pro-tem.

Laguna Board Elects Its Officers

The faces of the officers of the Laguna Salada Elementary School District have not changed a bit.

The whole slate of officers was retained for the next fiscal year.

Mrs. Ruth M. Boudinot will head the board as president. Robert T. Hale was named chairman pro tem and district trustee representative. Rodney Dailey was re-elected clerk and Dr. Rodney Clark, clerk pro-tem.

In other business, the board discussed the preliminary budget, spending time particularly on salaries. A meeting was scheduled last night with members of the finance committee of the Laguna Salada teachers' group.

Bids were opened on first phase of the Portola Highlands School. Contractor Buzz Haskins submitted a low bid of $199,850.

Assistant Superintendent John Munt said the bid was within the estimate and the amount of money approved by the state for the project.

The board reluctantly accepted the resignation of Melvin Mann, social case worker for the district. The board felt that the timing of the resignation was unfair to the district because it is difficult to get a well qualified person for this position late in the season.

Dr. Rodney Clark suggested that the board review its policy of accepting resignations. Other board members concurred and a future discussion is planned.

Mrs. Jensen's Resignation Is Accepted

The San Mateo County Board of Education last week formally accepted the resignation of Mrs. Stella L. Jensen of Colma.

Mrs. Jensen, active in school and civic affairs in the North County since 1922, is moving to Burlingame, out of the district trustee area she represents.

She began her school board activity in 1922 when she was elected to the Jefferson Union High School District. She served on the board until 1964. She was also on the College of San Mateo Board from 1937 to 1955. She went on the County Board of Education eight years ago.

In other action, Mrs. Florence M. Cadigan of Redwood City was elected to her fifth one-year term as president of the board, a position Mrs. Jensen held until Mrs. Cadigan's election in 1960.

Mrs. Virginia King of South San Francisco was elected vice president.

$1,056,787 Given Cities

San Mateo County and its cities received $1,056,787 as their final allocation of motor vehicle license fee revenues for the six-month period which ended May 31, according to a statement from State Controller Alan Cranston.

The county's share is $493,54 and the cities' $563,240. The figures are the net June payment —the June apportionment less the April advance.

The money is allocated on a population basis, half the total going to cities and half to the counties.

Cities in the county received: Atherton, $12,538; Belmont, $22,412; Brisbane, $5,452; Burlingame, $31,304; Colma, $609; Daly City, $69,886; Half Moon Bay, $2,861; Hillsborough, $9,201; Menlo Park, $35,019; Millbrae, $19,334; Pacifica, $45,613; Redwood City, $63,460; San Bruno, $56,644; San Carlos, $29,294; San Mateo, $95,739; South San Francisco, $58,835; Woodside, $5,032.

Coast Grants 3 Variances

Pacifica Planning Commission last week granted three variances and recommended approval of a reclassification of two parcels of land.

A variance was granted Howard E. Cruse to allow construction of a single family dwelling on a substandard size building lot on the west side of Nataqua Street at the south end of the street.

Raymond Ferraris was given permission to build a single family residence on a substandard size site on Farallon, and Jack R. Roberts permissoin to have a 32.4 foot lot frontage on a cul-de-sac at the end of Burns Court in the Fairway Park No. 3 subdivision.

Approval was recommended for John R. Meyer to reclassify two lots at Brighton and Lakeview from one-family residential to multiple family, and for Gilbert Anda to reclassify a .5 acre parcel on the north side of Higgins Way just north of Adobe Drive from agricultural to one family residential.

A report from a consultant on the proposed Brighton Canyon hillside study was taken under consideration.

LIBRARY ELECTIONS

Mrs. Kendree to Head City Unit

Mrs. U. R. Kendree was elected chairman last week of the Daly City Library Commission for the next fiscal year. She replaces Mrs. Frank Kelechava.

Mrs. Kendree will be assisted by Mrs. Helen Staub, the commission vice chairman.

In other business, the commission made final preparations for the opening of a new branch in the Bayshore area at 129 Acaia Street.

New furniture, stacks and over 4,000 books, many of them brand new, are being prepared for the new branch, slated to open next Wednesday. The city took over the library branch from the county.

The Friends of the Library are planning a reception Wednesday evening to formally mark the event. According to President Robert Evans the reception will be hosted by Mrs. Peter Ruggeri and Mrs. Vera Counts, residents of Bayshore.

Mrs. Stella Filarski will continue to be in charge of the facility.

The commission heard another survey in connection with the planning grant for state aid authorized by the city council earlier this year.

The survey studied last Wednesday was on the characteristics of the county's population, City Librarian Samuel Chandler said.

The planners are trying to determine where new library outlets would be most beneficial in the county.

The commission has been scheduling special meetings for the purpose of discussing the studies.

Convicted By Atoms

A former Daly City private detective, who was convicted of a charge of attempted burglary with the help of a nuclear reactor, is to be sentenced August 4.

William Ray Woodard, 30, 302 Vista Grande Avenue, was convicted by a jury in the courtroom of Superior Judge J. A. Branson after the prosecution introduced evidence obtained through a process called "neutron activation analysis."

The process, which matched paint samples by bombarding them with neutrons in the reactor, had never been allowed into evidence in a state court before.

The paint samples were obtained from a tire tool which, the process showed, came from Woodard's car and had been used to pry open the rear door of a South San Francisco liquor store.

Pamphlet for Fair Housing Is Circulated

Pacificans for Fair Housing have circulated a pamphlet, calling for defeat of Proposition 14, which calls for the repeal of the state's fair housing laws. The proposition will be on the November ballot.

The pamphlet declares that defeat of the proposition is necessary to sustain political ideals of equal rights and human dignity.

It points out that every major religious faith in California opposes the referendum move.

Mike Haggerty and Andrew Field, co-chairman of Pacificans for Fair Housing, declared in a joint statement:

"Proposition 14 is a blow to the most basic American tradition—the right of any person to make his way according to his own worth.

FIREMAN HURT

Fire Threatens TV Equipment

A grass fire that blazed across 34 acres on San Bruno mountain above the Cow Palace, Republican National Convention site, for a time Saturday brought fears to television network officials that convention relay equipment would be damaged.

As Daly City fire equipment raced to the scene in the nearby Crocker Hills, a volunteer racing to his station collided with a fire truck and was injured.

Division of Forestry crews joined with Colma and other firemen in putting out the large mountain fire.

Assistant Ranger Tom Meade said the TV people were worried that the fire, or at least the heat from the fire, would damage their expensive relay antennas on the ridge back of the Cow Palace.

Meade said the fire did not come any closer than a mile and a half to the antennas and that they were never in danger. Smoke drifted in the direction of the installations and made it seem worse than it was, he explained.

The fire, probably started by children, covered 35 acres, Meade reported.

By LE PACINI

WHEN THE Chamber of Commerce tells us Daly City is growing, we sometimes get the feeling the chamber isn't speaking of growing population, but of the growing importance of old time Daly City inhabitants.

In reading over some 1954 sports columns that Joe Verducci once authored for a rival weekly, we found one in which the old coach (who, himself, has advanced somewhat since a decade ago) was writing about the recreation facilities in Daly City.

One of the part-time playground leaders of whom he spoke glowingly was Lou Martin who, at the time, was also the Jefferson varsity baseball coach and who is now adult school and summer session principal in the Jefferson Union High School District.

In the Jefferson High P. E. department besides Martin, were John Ivan, now the district's director of instruction; Ernie Ribera, now principal at Oceana; Joe McGrath, now head football coach at Jefferson, and Tony Giammona, Westmoor's head basketball man and a big vote getter in the Daly City council elections this year.

Then, of course, there are former Jefferson High students who've climbed several rungs in the area: Floyd Gonella, former Indian football flash, now assistant principal at Terra Nova; Ribera, already mentioned above; Bob Watt, all around athlete now assistant principal at Oceana; Al Figone, three sport star, now head football coach at Terra Nova, and probably a few our rather damaged memory have omitted.

IN ANOTHER Verducci column of that era, he wrote of Daly City as an area with its share of sports luminaries. He named Bob Silvestri, 1952 state amateur golf champ; Gordon Carlson, at the time a very successful basketball coach at San Francisco's Poly High; Chad Reade, who was then Washington High's head football man; Milt Reiterman, then football coach at Mission High and now one of San Francisco's top central office educational administrators.

Also, Vic Ramus, former USF pigskin great; Jerry Dowd, center for the great St. Mary's grid teams of the mid-thirties; Paddy Cottrell, the Yankee scout, now Santa Clara head baseball mentor; Joe Futernich, former San Francisco Seal shortstop; Dick Boyle, another St. Mary's football great who was at the time San Francisco State's baseball coach, and Guido DeGhetaldi, S. F. State golf coach.

Some of the people Verducci mentioned are still around and, as we've shown in several of our columns, there are many, many newcomers.

ONE DALY CITY sport star who's branching his activities into other areas is Westmoor's Most Valuable NPL basketball player, Mike Hannigan.

Mike's combining summer spending money with what he figures will be a political education as a lobby boy at San Francisco's Travel Lodge at the wharf.

The party of a Republican contender, as well as the crew of a television network, was to make its headquarters at Mike's new place of employment.

Hustling Mike's hoping he'll be toting a little luggage for some of the GOP big shots.

Guess he figures it all must be worth a term paper when he gets to college in the fall, probably at College of San Mateo.

GETTING BACK to Paddy Cottrell, he was involved in one of the funniest sports stories we've ever run across when he was scouting for the Yankees on the West Coast.

A S. F. State College outfielder who'll go unnamed here for obvious reasons had had an impressive season in 1952 and Cottrell had apparently been interested in him.

He injured his arm in late season of 1952, however, and Paddy naturally cooled off on him.

Determined to come back, the kid worked diligently during the winter months, and returned to college for the 1953 season, reasonably sure his dead arm had returned.

The arm was no longer sore and it seemed as strong as ever but he had decided not to really cut loose until he was absolutely sure it was worthwhile.

During one of the pre-season practices before the opening of regular league play, Cottrell showed up at the S. F. State field, and our friend, the outfielder, decided that this would be the worthwhile time to cut loose.

Making sure Cottrell was looking his way, he motioned to a guy with a fungo bat to hit him a few and time after time shagged long flies and returned them with what he felt was unerring accuracy and awesome power. His arm felt great!

When the workout was over, he nonchantly trotted from the outfield in the direction of Cottrell, quite pleased with his showing and envisioning a fabulous contract.

When Paddy approached him, he figured the Yankee scout was ready to talk terms.

Cottrell threw his arm around the limp-armed outfielder's shoulder and said: "Keep working, son. That arm'll come back yet."

Summer Hi School Cage In 3rd Week

As play moves into its third week of action, the Summer High School Basketball League sponsored by the Daly City Recreation Department is seeing a high level of play among the twelve teams competing in the two six-team divisions.

In the Monday night Short Division, the Flippers, Huck Doon Pods, and Boozers all came up with victories.

The Boozers, paced by Captain Dan McGowan's 24 points, ran away with an easy 68-26 romp of the Ramrods. Greg Gunderson paced the losers with 19 points.

In the evening's tightest game, the rugged Huck Doon Pods nipped a well drilled Bruin's squad 43-39. Ed Larios dominated both the scoring and the backboards for the victorious Pods receiving excellent backcourt help from Bill Jones.

Co-captains Claude Munday and Pete Barry paced a fourth quarter rally with eight points each but it fell short.

The evening's final game saw the Flippers swamp a shorter Playboys five 47-18. Balanced scoring by Dan Cafferata, Tom Pritchard, and George Egan was the key to victory.

After two weeks of play, the Whalers and Mothers have undefeated records in the Long Division's Thursday night games.

In last week's action, the Mothers swamped the Lakers 79-33 and the Whalers beat the Warriors 59-40 in the evening's best played game.

The third game of the division saw the Cuperic-Sulfates drop the undermanner Snappers from the undefeated ranks by a close 44-40 score.

CRUCIALS PLAYED

Action Furious As D.C. Leagues Approach End

Here is a rundown of action during the past week in baseball leagues sponsored by the Daly City Recreation Department.

AMERICAN MIDGET

The PAL Redsox pulled to within percentage points of the league leading PAL Yankees this week by squeaking out a 2-1 win over the leaders in a crucial game.

The Redsox pushed across their two runs in the last inning when Tod Stevenson hit a bloop single to drive in the winning run. An overthrow at first base aided the winners.

Winning pitcher was Jerry Mahood in his first start for the Redsox. He gave up only four hits and struck out four. Losing pitcher Dede Pinelli gave up only three hits while striking out seven.

The title now rests on the Yankees game next Wednesday with the OLPH Falcons. If the Falcons upset the Yankees, coached by Les Bastedo, the league will end in a tie between the Yanks and the Redsox.

Lenny Hoffman pitched his OLPH Falcons to a 5-4 win over the OLM Wolves this week, giving up five hits and striking out eight. Wolf catcher John Flynn was cut in the mouth when he blocked the plate to keep a run from being scored.

Tiff Redman supplied the hitting power with two home runs to lead the BYA Rams to a 13-2 win over the OLM Broncos. Robby O'Neil also homered and Carlos Garcia got three hits. Stoveman hit a homer for the Broncos.

INTERMEDIATE

The PAL Cubs remained on top of the Intermediate Division this week with a win over the second place OLM Leopards.

The Holy Angel Lions roared back with a win over the league leading PAL Cubs after losing to them earlier in the week.

The Lions downed the Relish Bakery team 11-6 on the hitting of Doug Matgen and the pitching of Keith Pool and Timmy Dillon.

The OLPH Hawks, led by Mike Ray, Bob Perkon and Ed Schweitzer, beat the PAL Braves. Ray blasted a homer out of sight in left field and Perkon and Schweitzer contributed clutch hits.

JUNIOR

George Pedroni's PAL Tigers continued to lead the pack in the Junior League. They chalked up another week over the OLPH Eagles 112.

Grady Proctor blasted a home run with one on in the first inning. Gary Senn followed later with a two-run single and Rex Newby added two more runs with a double that drove in Carl Campos and Lou Mattucci.

The Ben Franklin Press looked like leaders last week in a game with the Bender Roofers. But Steve Seager drove in two runs to give the Roofers a lead they never relinquished. Ken Duart and Seager contributed the hitting power to lead the Roofers to a 12-6 win.

Jimmy Hart came up with two out to connect with his third hit of the day in leading the Holy Angel Shamrocks to a 4-3 win over Skyline Plaza.

Hurler Larry Mannini gave up only one earned run on four hits while striking out seven for the win. Don Belluomini and Bob Collins provided the defense for the Shamrocks.

NATIONAL MIDGETS

Rich Brewer's PAL Indians continued their dominance in the National Division as they downed a tough OLM Gaels this week.

Smokey Morton, in his first mound appearance, struck out 10 men without giving up a walk. He and Dave Mihelli each got two for three in the hitting department to notch the win.

Morton's worst moment came in the sixth inning when Gael Paul Glishinski blasted a home run.

Fred Belloumini's PAL Cardinals hung onto second place with a close 7-6 win over the OLM Dons. The Dons six runs came on only three hits.

The Cards rapped 12 hits for their seven runs. Steve Cezzarello and Larry Beltrage led the hit parade with three for four each.

Don Jones rolled his Hunt's Donuts over the Holy Angels Colts 3-1. Jones sent nine batters down swinging while giving up only one hit. He also hit a home run to aid his own cause.

I've Got It!

RICH WASHFORD, catcher for the PAL Redsox, chases a pop-up in the American Midget League sponsored by the Daly City Recreation Department. The Redsox beat the league-leading PAL Yankees to climb to within half a game of a league tie.

Tigers Top Eagles, 9-1, To Take Tri-City Lead

The PAL Tigers have jumped into a strong leading position in the Daly City Recreation Department's Tri-City Summer Baseball League by virtue of their 9-1 victory over the previously undefeated Golden Eagles last week.

Grady Proctor's pitching and hitting paced his team to their 10-hit victory. Proctor struck out five and went 3 for 3 to be the games top hitter.

Battery mate Jeff Meitz went 2-4 and stole three bases in the seventh inning, including home, to highlight the final innings of play.

In the week's second game, George Benson's Jefferson A.C. moved into second place by downing a tough Riordan A.C. Club 3-0. Tom Pritchard's one-hit, ten-strikeout pitchng paced the Mission St. team to their victory. Bob Rezak batted in two runs for the winners.

The Parkmerced A.C. nine accepted a forfeit win from the South Sunset A.C. team.

Next week's games on Sunday will see the the S.S.F. Recs and Riordan A.C. nines squaring off at 1 p.m. and the Golden Eagles, Jefferson A.C. teams playing at 4 p.m. Both games to be played on the Marchbanks diamond.

D.C. Fairs Lead In Father-Son

The Daly City father-son team of George and Jim Fair may become the first combination in the history of the Ross-Atkins Father and Son Golf Tournament to repeat for the title.

The golfing duo had only four fours on their card, the rest were threes, in firing a nifty 58 to tie Howard and Stewart Whitman for medalist honors in the first round of the tournament at Golden Gate Park yesterday.

The Fairs won the tournament last year and are favored to repeat the win when the 16 low teams begin match play next Sunday.

Young Jim, a stalwart golfer on Westmoor's Championship team last year is on the golf team now at College of San Mateo. The eighteen-year-old lad earned a trip to the National Junior Championship last year when he was a finalist in the state championships.

In Sunday's match the father-son alternated shots in carding a 30 on the first round and a 28 on the second round. The pair, however, was unable to record a birdie.

The four over par scores eliminated Carl and Ken Spalding's 60, recorded on Saturday, for medalist honors.

Another Whitman, Steve, is competing in the National Public Links Championship this week.

Installing officer district governor George Yerby of Daly City commended the membership "for a history of achievement and tradition."

Noel Turner was welcomed as the new local president. Turner became a Jaycee just one year ago and moved up quickly through many chairmanships.

Other new officers are internal vice president, Harl Buckridge; external vice presdient, Jerry Bradshaw; secretary, Fred Koehler; treasurer, Tom Wilson; state director, Ray Wood, and director, Ray Webb.

Outgoing president Don Castle told the membership, "The past year could be called a successful one yet there is still a long way to go."

He added, "No other organization has so many good purposes, Jaycees do what other organizations fail to try. The junior Chamber movement is completely action oriented."

At the close of the meeting dinner, chairman Brent Swift presented Castle with a plaque.

Ready for a Drive

THE FORD MUSTANG that the Westlake Merchants Association is giving away on July 31 was the subject of some good natured "tomfoolery" last week when Advertising Committee Chairman Don Davis donned old-fashioned driving gear to take a spin. Confronting him about his peculiar driving habit is Association President Morris Levine. The Mustang, which is currently on display in the center's mall area is just a part of the $5,000 package of prizes to be given away at two big drawings at 8:15 and 9:15 p.m. Free tickets are being given away to Westlake shoppers. No purchase is necessary and winners don't have to be present to win. All winners, however, must be over 21 and only one prize to a family.

Million Dollar Family

FIRST NATIONAL BANK of Daly City passed the $1 million loan mark last week with the issuance of a truck loan to Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Booher of 134 Parkview street, Daly City. Loan officer Charles Turner, right, presented a check for the loan to Mr. and Mrs. Booher and son Danny. The bank will give the Boohers the last payment on the loan for achieving the $1 million distinction. (Post-Ttimes photo)

BETTER BUSINESS

Advertising Is Big Business

By LORENE BEASLEY
Editor, Better Business Bureau "Barometer"

BY CONSERVATIVE estimate, well over four million individuals and separate advertisers spend over $12 billion annually to keep the public alerted to the parade of new products that constantly appear on the consumer market.

Advertising, a vital instrument used in our competitive free enterprise society, is not a separate industry or business. Advertising agencies, and especially those in New York, play an important part in the nation's advertising. However, approximately only 60,000 persons are employed by advertising agencies that handle 40 per cent of the nation's advertising.

Businessmen advertising in widely different fields and industries, ranging from corporations with annual advertising budgets of $100 million dollars to the hand-printed signs of the country fruit and vegetable stands, produced a need for many different approaches to regulation.

Exaggerted claims in advertising and selling are not new. In 1911, a "truth in advertising" movement was launched by the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World in Boston focusing national attention to the need for legislation to clean up advertising.

IN 1916 these committees were reorganized into the Better Business Bureau which has since that time played a significant role in the development of both government and self-regulation of business.

In 1914, the advertising community, anxious that the competitive free enterprise society would not stretch the truth too far or follow advertising policies in bad taste, helped in the establishment of the Federal Trade Commission.

American advertising presents a tremendous complex structure of activities that involves vastly different types of interests and individuals in which no one group or factor is dominant. It is diversified by national and local accounts, by products, service and industry categories, by agency-placed and non-agency-placed business and by the media outlets it employs.

National and local advertising have definite characteristic difference. National advertising is used by thousands of different firms of which 3,300 advertise nationally on television alone.

Widely different items, such as agricultural products, ale and beer, gasoline, clothing, dental products, hotels and resorts, candy and soft drinks, use national advertising. Food and grocery products account for more than 20 per cent of the national advertising.

LOCAL advertising, representing 40 per cent of the nation's advertising, presents another problem. Local advertisers are as diverse as national advertisers, including dry cleaners, jewelers, automobile dealers, supermarkets and department stores.

The nature and extent of self-regulation in advertising is not well-known outside the advertising field. Even among the advertising professionals there are many who do not fully comprehend the aspects of self-regulation that do not directly concern them.

Advertising self-regulation for a local meat market involves problems and controls not needed by a local television shop and quite different from those needed by a used car dealer. Self-regulation in the dry cleaning industry little resembles that required by a local beauty shop.

The greatest hope for the continuance of the American private enterprise system lies in the stimulation of self-regulation.

As the strength of the self-regulation system comes from the strength of the individuals who comprise it, Better Business Bureau works with government and business to encourage the ethical practices by the American businessman as the soundest national policy.

Hullys Will Leave D. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hully of 319 South Mayfair Avenue, Daly City, operators of the Westlake Laundry for the past five years, will move to San Jose August 1 to take over part ownership of the Travel-Inn Motel in downtown San Jose, now under construction.

Over the past five years, they have built up their finished laundry business, situated in the Westlake Shopping Center, to a point where it has one of the largest volumes of any such business in Northern California.

STERLING RICKS
Awarded Trophy

Employe of Walgreen's Is Honored

The Western District of Walgreen's Drugs Company has honored a clerk in a Daly City outlet as its "employe of the month."

He is Sterling Ricks, a clerk in the company's Westlake Shopping Center store. He was named out of 600 employes in the western district.

James R. Saunders, district manager, presented Ricks with a trophy. He commented that the award is made to the employe who best demonstrates a Walgreen policy of courtesy to customers.

Robert H. Markuse, manager of the Westlake store, noted that Ricks has won the store's "employe of the month" award three times.

Ricks is a resident of San Francisco. He is enrolled at the San Francisco Conservatory of Music.

Colma Beauty Shoppe Opens

The Hillside Beauty Shoppe at 1052 Hillside Boulevard, Colma, has opened under the ownership of Pauline Shelfer of South San Francisco.

The shoppe was formerly Veda's Hair Fashions, operated at the same address.

New Routing To Cemetery Nears Finish

A temporary road to the front gate of the Chinese Cemetery is almost completed and state plans to build the Junipero Serra Freeway are proceeding on schedule, according to Daly City Engineer William Chapman.

A Chinese belief that only criminals and convicts should be taken through the back gate of a cemetery to be buried caused somewhat of a problem last May when the Division of Highways moved up the freeway's construction schedule.

Grading operations for the Serramonte subdivision had cut off the cemetery's access front door road to the west and the state construction of Junipero Serra threatened to do the same on the east.

Because of the Chinese belief, the cemetery association had to spend between $30,000 and $40,000 to build an elaborate gate on the front road "to show respect," an association spokesman said.

The temporary road is being constructed at no charge to the cemetery association by Suburban Realty, developers of Serramonte. Suburban also will maintain the road.

The all-weather route also will extend from Skyline Boulevard, cut through some wooded area and wind around to the cemetery's front gate, Chapman said.

Once the freeway is completed, another access road from the present Junipero Serra Boulevard will be built, he said.

Pacifica High in Tax Delinquency

Pacifica, Half Moon Bay and Millbrae, in that order, have the highest percentages of property tax delinquency among the county's 17 cities, according to a report prepared by County Tax Collector Ross Conti.

Conti said that for the 1963-64 fiscal year, which ended June 30, there was a total delinquency of $1,173,090 of the $77,139,427 that was to be colected.

The average delinquency in the cities was 1.39 per cent and the average for the unincorporated areas was 2.13 per cent. The over-all average for the entire county was 1.52 per cent.

If the taxpayer did not pay his taxes by June 30, tax liens were established against the properties and penalties were assigned. Penalties for the first year of delinquency are 1 per cent a month and thereafter ½ of 1 per cent a month.

Here is a table showing the amount to have been collected in each city and the percentage of delinquency:

City	Total Charge	Per Cent Delinquency

Louanne's Datebook

By Louanne Heath

LOVELY sunshine and the lure of the far country has caused a noticeable dicrease in the local population these lazy July days.

As quiet as the days seemed last week localites had only to travel as far as the Cow Palace to witness a beehive of activity and a maze of communications equipment the proportions of which were enough to astound the average layman who was privileged to wander about the cavernous interior of the exhibition hall!

Among some of the Cow Palace's most intrigued visitors were members of the Daly City Rotary Club. The regular Wednesday session was postponed to a Friday field trip with the gentlemen meeting at the Cow Palace, touring the premises and then dining in one of the restaurants set up to handle conventioneers.

According to some of the completely amazed members, you have to see the changes that have taken place, view the equipment and see it demonstrated, before you can begin to believe what your eyes see, and then it is very difficult to comprehend the magnitude of the electronic wonders gathered there to provide the nation with a ringside seat of the Republican Convention.

CHARLES Edward Grubbs of Independence, Mo., will be making the home of his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Holbrook of South San Francisco, his home away from home for the next six months.

Grubbs, who is stationed aboard the aircraft carrier Hornet, will be in the area while the ship is undergoing repairs at Hunter's Point.

The Holbrooks had hoped their guest would arrive in San Francisco in time to accompany them on a Fourth of July outing to their summer place in Lake County but schedules didn't work out properly for that trip. Other sojourns to the resort area are planned for later with the hope that Grubbs will be able to accompany the family frequently, Mrs. Holbrook reports.

PATTI STOLZ, Janet Holden, Kay Kaufman, Jackie Madden, Mary Ellen Miller, Nancy Gensley, Marie Ricetti, Marilyn Bennett, Marge Somdahl, and Marlene Alvarado, all of the Daly City Belle-Tones, were guests of honor and the featured choral group at the Lutheran Servicemen's Center in downtown San Francisco this past weekend.

The songstresses entertained with ballads, and popular tunes and featured Mrs. Alvarado in a delightful take off on a song by Jerry Lewis.

Following the formal presentation the Belle Tones and the servicemen at the center joined forces for a session that developed into a cross between a Mitch Miller sing along and a lively Hootenanny.

Perhaps of interest to people in this area is the function of the Lutheran Servicemen's Centers. The San Francisco branch is staffed by two full-time employees and a host of volunteer workers from Lutheran churches all over the Bay Area. The centers, which have no religious barriers, provide recreation facilities, counseling and refreshments for members of the military who are in the area.

Mrs. George (Antonette) Hersom will be meeting her in-laws for the past six years for the first time on Sunday when the senior Hersoms arrive from Maine. Also eager to get acquainted with the visitors from the East are their three grandchildren, Frederic, Cathleen and Jenifer.

In addition to the business of getting to know one another the two families hope to thoroughly explore San Francisco, journey southward for visits to the Hearst Castle and Yosemite and eastward to show the visitors the beauties of Lake Tahoe.

"DENTAL HEALTH FACTS"

What is the relationship between nutrition and dental health?

Good nutrition is important for growth and development. Diet affects dental health to a greater degree during the early years (before the age of 8) than at any other time. Therefore, an adequate diet is needed, particularly during the growing and developing years. Some foods are more valuable than others for protecting health and promoting growth. These so-called protective foods that should form the basis of meal planning include milk and milk products, vegetables and fruits, whole grain cereals and breads, eggs and lean meats, poultry and fish.

In northern California Dr. Campbell limits his practice to the making of dental plates, partial plates, removable bridges and extractions for same; however, he recommends that you see your dentist at least twice a year in order to help prolong the use of your natural teeth as even the most beautiful modern dentures are not as efficient as healthy, natural teeth.

Legion Essay Winners Named

Two San Mateo County girls were winners in the statewide "Americanism" contest sponsored by the American Legion auxiliary.

The county auxiliary units won a total of 18 awards and citations, according to Mrs. John Bray, junior past president and member of the San Carlos unit.

The awards were made at the installation ceremonies of Dr. Lucille Most of Daly City as county president.

Sheila Shapiro of Parkside School in San Bruno took first place in the fourth through sixth grade group, which wrote on "The Advantages of an American School Child." She is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Robert Shapiro.

JULIE D. TRUCHON, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Truchon of 582 Skyline Drive, Daly City, has completed a three-year nurses' training course at St. Joseph's Hospital in San Francisco. She will become a member of the nursing staff at Pennisula Hospital in Burlingame.

Jessica Artau, Ramon Ortiz Wed in Baptist Church

Jessica Artau of Daly City became the bride of Ramon Ortiz recently in ceremonies at the First Baptist Church of Daly City.

The bride, a Jefferson High School graduate, wore a three quarter length gown of white peau-de-soie, with quarter length sleeves and lace bodice. Her bouquet was made of white orchids.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Robert Thompson, wore a pale pink dress of French lace. The bride's stepfather performed the traditional ceremony of "giving the bride."

Joyce Thorne was maid of honor and James Urias was best man for the couple. Serving as ushers were the groom's brother, Valente Ortiz and Lenny Garsa.

The groom, a graduate of Mission High School in San Francisco, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ortiz of Fort Stockton, Texas.

The wedding ceremony was officiated by the Rev. Charles Archer.

Following a honeymoon in Monterey, the couple took up residence in Daly City.

Sugar 'n' Spice

By Nell Norton

VACATION TIME is here and people are taking off for points north, east, south and west. Hmmmm, from Daly City the points west are Thornton Beach and Hawaii. While Thornton Beach is a fine place, I hope you are going to Hawaii.

My traveling will be east and south for I'm going to Kentucky to visit friends and relatives in the beautiful blue grass state. So for the next few weeks, you can expect this column to feature all sorts of southern cooking as I'll be visiting and sampling dishes and swapping recipes with all those good Kentucky cooks.

Before I leave on my trip, I'd like to share a couple of recipes for entrees that should make your meal-planning easier.

HAMBURGER CASSEROLE

1 8-ounce package noodles
1 pound ground beef
1 tablespoon margarine or butter
2 cans tomato sauce
1 cup cottage cheese
8 ounces cream cheese
¼ cup thick sour cream
1/3 cup chopped green onion
1 tablespoon chopped green pepper
2 tablespons melted margarine or butter

Cook noodles according to package, drain. Skillet-brown hamburger in one tablespoon margarine or butter. Stir in tomato sauce, remove from heat. Combine cottage cheese, cream cheese, sour cream, onions and green pepper.

In a buttered two-quart casserole, spread half the noodles, cover with cheese mixture, then cover this with the remaining noodles. Pour melted butter over noodles. Pour hamburger sauce mixture on top. Bake at 350-degrees for 20 to 30 minutes or until hot. Serves six.

RECENTLY, I acquired a cookbook put out by the Mother's Guild of St. Raphael's School in San Rafael and found this recipe for pork chops much to my liking. Mrs. Mary Liz Carrino was the contributor.

SMOTHERED PORK CHOPS AND POTATOES

6 loin pork chops
4 medium potatoes, sliced
2 large onions, chopped
½ tsp. thyme
1½ tsp. salt
Pepper to taste
1 small can evaporated milk
2/3 cup water

Brown meat quickly on both sides in heavy pan with cover. Arrange potatoes and onions over meat. Add seasonings. Pour in milk and water. Cover and simmer until done—about 30 minutes or longer, depending on the thickness of the chops. Gravy may be thickened if desired. Serves six.

An Honorary Ignatian

A Plaque He'll Always Treasure

Elio Fontana, chairman of the Jefferson Union High School District, is used to awards and plaques. He has received many for both his business and his civic activities.

But he was the recipient, recently, of an award he shall always treasure, he said.

He was made an honorary member of the student body of St. Ignatius High School in San Francisco.

It all began a while back when three high school students came into the V. Fontana Mounment showroom on El Camino Real in Colma.

They were looking for an "inexpensive" monument to erect in the St. Ignatius gymnasium in memory of Dennis P. Carter, an athlete who died earlier this year.

Fontana, who as chairman of the high school board, has had quite a bit of experience with youth, told the youngsters he had an old monument that he could give them for a "more than reasonable" cost. They agreed.

When Fontana went to his foundry, however, he was disappointed in the stone and instead gave them an impressive new one, complete with engraving at the same price.

That was all Fontana heard about it until he received a letter from the student body president, Gregory Kolar, which said, "... we gallantly marched out to get a memorial for a classmate, Dennis Carter, prepared to face the cold-hearted profit seeker. Instead, we found a generous man with a real heart; a man we will never cease to respect and admire."

Shortly following the letter, was the presentation of the plaque, signed by Kolar and the Reverend Patrick J. Carroll, S.J., president of the Catholic School. It bore the seal of the school.

Fontana said the plaque will occupy a prominent place at his business.

COMMENT

New Speed Laws For Fog Needed

FOG-SHROUDED Skyline Boulevard claimed a life last week. And as one traffic officer said at the tragic scene: "This could all be avoided if drivers would just slow down."

A look at Daly City traffic records for the past five years indicates that drivers are not about to slow down on Skyline Boulevard, regardless of the intensity of the fog. As long as municipal and state posted speeds ranging from 35 to 65 miles per hour are there to "protect" the motorist from a technical violation of the law, these speeds will continue even during heavy summer fog.

It becomes obvious that a whole new set of laws governing speed control in fogbound areas is necessary.

In the fatal accident last Wednesday, traffic officers said visibility was limited to 75 feet. Vehicles traveling at 45 m.p.h. could not even stop in that distance for a lighted arterial, much less for the dim image of a parked vehicle.

The State Division of Highways announced last week that special warning signs would be installed along that stretch of Skyline Boulevard where the death occurred.

The signs will be constructed so that they can be changed when fog conditions prevail. This can and should be the first step in a state-wide safety program for controlling traffic in fog-prone areas.

DALY CITY police records show that in the years 1959 through 1963 there have been 204 motor vehicle accidents on Skyline Boulevard within the city limits.

Of these 204 accidents, 75 have involved personal injuries, with 116 requiring medical treatment.

Although Skyline is a divided highway and would normally be considered to have a higher safety ratio, more than half of all accidents on Skyline involve personal injury, usually of a serious nature.

Virtually all Skyline accidents are rear-end collisions where up to scores of unsuspecting motorists are involved in chain reaction pile-ups, due to limited visibility.

An officer observed at the scene of last week's fatal accident that "fifteen miles an hour would still be too fast," under fog conditions prevailing.

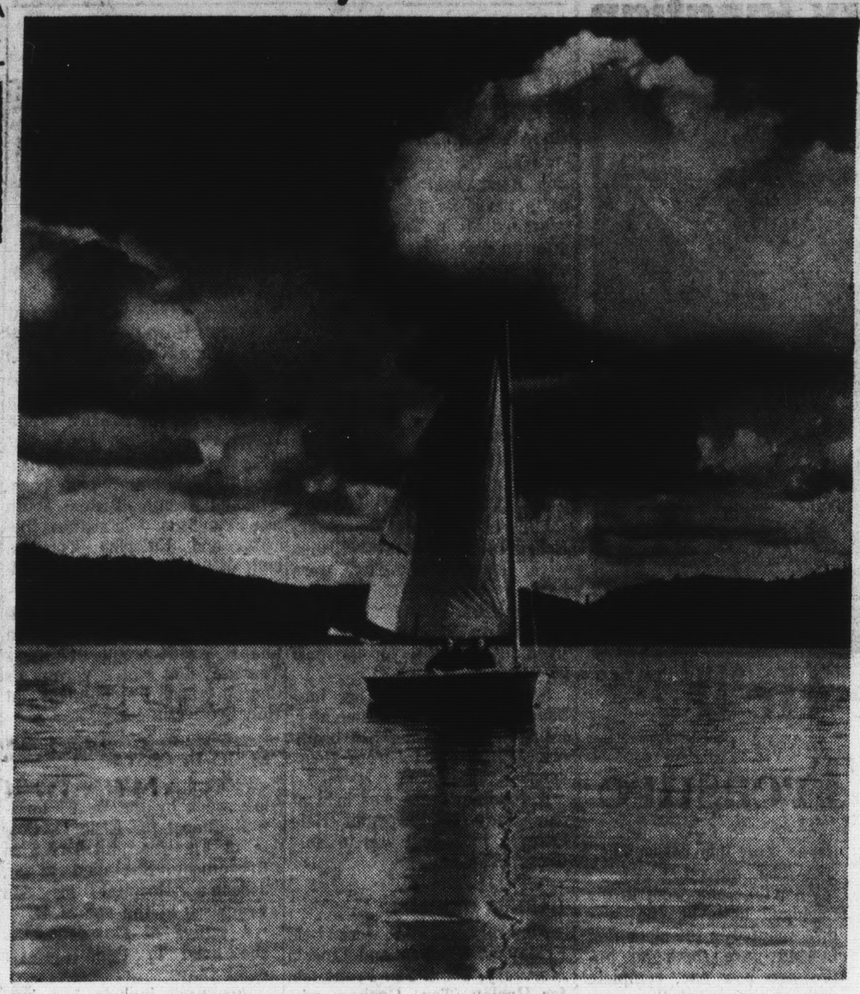
PROVIDENTIALLY, the state has been conducting tests in the Sacramento area designed to determine the effectiveness of devices for controlling speed during fog. This program should produce some statistics showing maximum safe speeds during various conditions of visibility. Some states in the east already have lower speed limits, which become mandatory during foggy weather.

The new Skyline warning signs should be studied carefully for effectiveness. Perhaps out of this tragedy can be developed a whole new concept for controlling traffic during heavy fog and other times when visibility is poor.

Five years of statistical evidence builds up a solid case against Skyline Boulevard as a potential death trap for motorists.

Fog and speed make up the deadly combination. There is no remedy for the presence of fog. State and local officials must step in and eliminate the excessive speeds.

Whiskeytown Reservoir



A SAILBOAT glides across Whiskeytown Reservoir, which together with the recreational area around it is a national park. The reservoir is situated about eight miles west of Redding and has a shoreline of about 36 miles. Recreational activities include fishing, boating, swimming, and camping. The reservoir is created by a 282-foot dam on Clear Creek. Water level is kept constant during daylight hours from May to October. The Memories Will Remain

Don Miller

AS FAMILY REUNIONS GO, the one they held the other day in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Geller at 44 Park Manor Drive, Daly City, will have to be ranked among the most heart-warming we've ever heard about in these parts.

The occasion was the arrival of Mrs. Geller's sister, Mrs. Rose Pelaez, from the Philippines for a six-month visit. The two had not seen each other for 20 years.

Nor, for that matter, had Mrs. Pelaez seen other members of the family for lo these past two decades—her mother, Mrs. Lily Talmadge of 5 Coronado Avenue; her brother, William Talmadge of 20 Ridgefield Avenue and her sister, Mrs. Theresa Solomon of Redwood City.

Now, it wasn't so much the 20-year interval that made this reunion heart-warming as it was the trying situation in which the family found itself when last they had been together.

That was in Manila in 1945. To be more precise, it was in the Santo Thomas prison camp, set up for civilians interned by the Japanese during World War II.

The brother and sisters had been raised in the Philippines by their American parents who had settled there shortly after America gained possession of the Philippines as a result of the Spanish-American War.

When the Japanese captured the Philippines early in World War II, all American citizens living there were ordered to the internment camp.

At the end of the war, the family and some 4000 other internees were freed by an armored calvary unit that smashed through the prison's stone walls with tanks.

A month later, the father died in a hospital camp of malnutrition. He had wasted away during the internment and liberation had come too late to save his life.

As Mrs. Geller puts it: "It's something you never, never forget."

SHE RECALLS the early days of the occupation when she and her mother had chosen not to give themselves up but rather had fled to the mountains near their home in Cebu, a city on an island near Manila.

Those mountains, she says, resembled Yosemite and abounded with caves and hiding places.

By day, she and her mother would hide in one of the caves and by night, they would stay in a house in a nearby town. One time, she remembers, they heard noises outside the cave and they thought it was the sound of Japanese troops.

Instead, it turned out to be a pack of monkeys noisily making their way through the underbrush.

After about a year of dodging the invaders, the two women decided to give themselves up. They soon wound up in the prison camp and joined the father and another daughter, Theresa.

A third daughter, Mrs. Pelaez, had married a Philippine national and was not interned. Meanwhile, two brothers, William and Henry, had joined the American Army at the outbreak of hostilities and subsequently had been captured by the Japanese.

William survided the infamous Death March and was taken to Japan where he was forced to work in coal mines. He was freed at war's end after somehow surviving a number of mine cave-ins during his forced labor.

Henry, however, was killed when a Japanese prison ship taking him to Japan was torpedoed —ironically—by Allied forces. The ship had not carried any marks identifying it as a prisoner-of-war vessel and thus was fair game for the Allies.

IN THE PRISON CAMP, Mrs. Geller recalls, the internees were treated well but that state of affairs deteriorated steadily as the war progressed and the Japanese war effort regressed.

Toward the end, the prisoners were given only a bowl of mush at 9 in the morning and a dish of soy beans at 4 in the afternoon—all of which amounted to just 200 calories a day.

The starvation diet was such that Mrs. Geller, who was only 14 when she was imprisoned, and other children no longer had the strength to climb to the fourth floor of one of the prison buildings to attend a school that internees had been conducting since the occupation started.

The day of liberation, of course, is an event she remembers acutely. She recalls that during a bombing run American planes were making over Manila the day prior, one of the pilots swooped low over the prison and dropped a message saying that the Allies would invade that night.

News of the message quickly swept through the prison. At this point, the Japanese ordered the internees not to look out any windows or they would be shot.

Earlier, three internees had been forced to dig their own graves and had been shot when they refused to disclose the location of a clandestine short wave radio they were using to keep in contact with the Philippine underground.

When the invasion did come, the fighting swept right into the prison courtyard and Mrs. Geller remembers being just missed by a piece of shrapnel that had caromed into the building she was in.

This incident and a hundred and one others were the main topics of conversation at this memorable reunion the other day. Which is understandable.

For the events of those grim days of World War II won't be easily forgotten by these people. Rather, the memory of them will be vivid for the rest of their lives.

North County Notebook

A Collection of Bits 'n Pieces

Ron Bates

EVERY SO OFTEN, you have a column that is made up of little bits and pieces that you've gathered from here and there. If you don't, your notebook gets too cluttered. So here goes.

Last word on the Daly City versus San Francisco as the convention site hassle. Pete Markovich, manager of the Daly City Chamber of Commerce, had some people in his Mission Street office last week who wanted to have some notary public work done.

Markovich commented that he had been busy gathering data to be ready for questions expected from the press and delegates to the Republican Convention.

At the mention of the convention, one of the two ladies in the group said that she had been watching television in San Angelo, Texas, and an announcer said that the convention was NOT in San Francisco, but in a town nearby called Daly City.

The reason it stuck in her mind was because her mother-in-law, also in the office, lives here.

Markovich said that the television station was probaly a recipient of one of the approximately 1,400 brochures sent to news media by the city and the chamber.

"For the money we spent, we're getting a million dollars worth of publicity," he enthused.

Most of the chamber members agree, by the way, that the money was well spent, but that now that the point was made, it shouldn't be carried to extremes.

THE COW PALACE also put out a four-page brochure with information about the convention center's facilities.

Notably conspicuous because of its absence was any mention of Daly City. The brochure says the 67 acres of grounds lie in both San Mateo County and San Francisco County.

San Francisco's share of the Cow Palace consists of a few parking spaces in the northeast section of this acreage.

VIN STRATTON'S mind apparently wasn't on the task at hand when he was typing out the weekly newsletter for the Daly City Rotary Club. One article read; "Regretfully, we heard from Ed Dennis that his recent change of job takes him out of the area, and that this makes it necessary for him to resign."

Stratton was thinking about Councilman Ed Dennis when he meant to mention Ed Olson, former manager of the Friar Room where the Rotarians meet every Wednesday.

Ironically, right below that item was a correction of a "goof" in the previous newsletter with an editor's note: "Why did I ever take this job?"

Making mistakes is expensive, he says, because the club levies fines for just about everything.

As an example, the day after Joe Verducci was elected supervisor, he went to Rotary. The finemaster, Dave Wharton, congratulated Verducci and said he was exempt from any levy because of the good publicity he had brought the club.

But all the "gladhanders" who even brushed by Verducci's chair were fined a dollar.

THE UNIFICATION meeting last week at Jefferson High got off to a slow start because of the late appearance of Chairman Paul Bradley and committee member Walter Henkle.

Car trouble? Flat tire? No, none of these. All of the previous umpteen unification meetings in the North County had been held at Westmoor and Bradley and Henkle had automatically gone there.

I'VE BEEN asked to join the Daly City Players, an adult drama group that meets Tuesdays and Thursdays at the Westlake Clubhouse, for a special production of Shakespeare's "Hamlet."

They want me to play Yorick. I'm told I come in where the guy holds my head and says: "Alas, poor Yorick, I knew him well."

With parts like this being offered, I may go outta my skull.

The Marquee

Summer Citizen

Barbara Bladen

SUMMERTIME in San Francisco is synonymous with three things: bad weather, tourists in white shoes and a spectacular "Ice Follies" at Winterland. They are things one can count on, be sure of and plan on seeing.

The annual Shipstads and Johnson production is a summer citizen that has been welcomed by audiences for 28 years. It would seem that one show would be the same as another. After all, there are only so many things a skater can do. But that's where you're wrong and it's impossible to describe how unlimited these performers are in their execution of leaps and turns.

Breathtaking is a term that aptly applies but I'm not sure to whom it refers, the skaters or the audience. When they leap and twirl in mid-air, race across the ice at breakneck speeds or throw each other about in seemingly careless fashion, my heart pounds with anxiety for them.

They must have some scarey moments themselves. After all, they're only humans. But we wonder.

TAKE FOR instance the Kermond Bros., Eric and Norman, who must live for skating (they've just opened the Burlingame Ice Skating Rink). Their tricks look suicidal but they clown around like it was nothing. Nothing!

That includes walking across each other's stomachs with skates, doing double summersaulte while holding each other's skates, doing double somersaults while holding each other's ing, twisting and balancing in the most horrendous positions.

But comic relief comes in many forms and if we aren't marveling at one thing, there's always a number, more colorful, more wonderful and more beautiful than the other.

One routine involves fuzzy rabbits, ice cream cone trees, black birds in a pie, and the inevitable live toy poodles. Oh, yes, and skating walruses in tuxedos.

For the historical minded there are Highland dancers who fling in sequinned plaid kilts. For the hysterical, there's the Beattys from England whose calculated mistakes on ice scare most of newcomers.

THE FAMED ice revue is again extravagantly costumed by the Hollywood Academy Award winner, Mary Wills. Her "Ballet in Blue" is a fantasia of chiffon and cerulean smoke out of which rises castle turrets and pastel cherubs. The skaters, supple as snakes, encased in sequin skins, dance to the "Blue Danube Waltz."

Handsome Richard Dwyer, who should be in movies but is pursuing a second career at the University of San Francisco during the day, is the suave escort for six models depicting heroines of operas.

Letters to the Editor

TO THE EDITOR:

Little more could have been said to capture the thoughts of our congregation in their quest for re-establishing themselves in a new house of worship than your Mr. Bates so beautifully put into words in his recent article (North County Notebook, June 24).

Mr. Bates has found the way to make our past trials and tribulations just a bit more recompensing.

For he has given such deep tempts to make this a thing of reality that we can well say that he has stirred within each member a new feeling of pride and accomplishment sufficient into itself to make the final stages of this project an overwhelming success.

Indeed, Mr. Bates' article has been the subject of such repeated praise from so many of us that we want you to know of our everlasting gratitude.

A sort of a catch in our throats came, too, when he so thoughtfully made "Like Wine Put into a Bottle" his theme. Simply put, we just want to say "thank you."

Julius Michaelis, president,
Congregation B'nai Israel.

TO THE EDITOR:

Speaking for the board of trustees, staff and students, I take this opportunity to thank you for the interest and consideration you extended to our high school district during the 1963-64 school year.

We are most grateful and hope that we will continue to warrant your confidence during the coming year.

Edward D. Morgan,
District Superintendent.

TO THE EDITOR:

On behalf of the entire Daly City Fire Department, I would like to extend thanks and appreciation for the marvelous co-operation which you gave us during the publicity campaign for our 1964 Firemen's Ball.

Without your kind help and the help of all your staff, the dance would not have been as successful as it was.

As you probably know, all the proceeds realized by the dance go to the Widows' and Orphans' Association of the Daly City Fire Department.

This is a worthy cause, which you have contributed to, and we sincerely hope The Post has realized the good will of the people of Daly City by supporting us.

Publicity Chairman,
Firemen's Ball.

The Quiet (?) Of Morning

George Whitesell

OUR COLUMN on the changing character of morning sounds must have struck an answering chord with the gentle readers and some of them wrote or telephoned about it.

A lady from San Carlos and a gent from Millbrae both expanded on the subject by expressing a pet peeve with morning sounds that emanate from outside the house.

The prime target for both was the use of auto horns as bugle calls.

Unfortunately we cannot repeat what the gent from Millbrae said on this subject.

The lady from San Carlos said much the same thing, but in more polite language.

She zeroed in on car-pool chauffeurs who wake up a whole neighborhood just to tear some sluggard away from his coffee.

A little later in the morning, she says, the teen-agers who drive cars start picking up their schoolmates with a series of warning blatts on the auto horn, and then depart in a hideous screeching of tires.

Still later, she complains, mothers bent on collecting a carload of small-fry for school, dancing lessons or swimming classes, lean on the auto horn in sustained blasts that shatter morning peace.

BOTH THE San Carlos lady and the Millbrae gent pointed out that, besides being ill-bred, these auto horn bugle calls play old Ned with the slumbers of people who may be ill or are trying to get in some extra shut-eye.

The gent from Millbrae works until 2 a.m. every morning and says the horns roust him out just when he has had enough sleep to keep him awake.

The lady from San Carlos says that parents should "learn" their children better. As nearly as we could gather, the gent from Millbrae favors a federal law against horn-blowing—with a mandatory death sentence.

Several readers commented that we had overlooked one of the most raucous morning sounds—the canine chorus of barking dogs that accompanies the delivery of morning newspapers.

SOME OF THE sounds of by-gone years that have now disappeared from most Peninsula cities drew nostalgic comment.

A Daly City lady recalled that before we became burdened with zoning and civic regulations, the sound of crowing roosters was the signal of dawn.

Someone, she says, always had a rooster that was a real "early bird." When this rooster sounded off all the other roosters in town would join in and "the whole town sounded like a barnyard."

Sleepy hens, she said, had a special type of clucking when summoned off the roost to start the day's scratching.

In similar, bucolic vein, one of the regulars down at the Hard Luck Bar and Grille said that a morning sound that he misses was the hearty heehaw of a jackass saluting the rising sun.

"When I was a boy," he declared, "nearly every livery stable used to keep a jack tethered out in back and you had to have an awful hangover not to hear them when they would cut loose.

"A little after that you could begin to hear the clanging of the anvils in the blacksmith shops. I used to think that all blacksmiths got up extra early just so they could start whanging away."

A Pacifica woman phoned to say she missed the morning school bells of long ago. "Nowadays they only have those buzzer things," she said with obvious contempt.

A BURLINGAME man came by to tell us that the awakening sound for the whole mid-Peninsula at one time was the slam-bang and clang of the first early morning trolley on the old No. 40 line.

"We could hear that damn thing when it was as far away as Millbrae and by the time it got to Broadway nobody could sleep.

"It used to go on down into San Mateo and turn on Baldwin Avenue to B and Main Streets, and every time it screeched around a corner it was worse than any sound you hear today."

The old-timers made it sound as though the Peninsula of today is a haven of quiet and peace.

AND CHURCH ACTIVITIES OF DALY CITY, COLMA, PACIFICA AND SOUTH SAN FRANCISCO

South African Exchange Student Due August 19

Westmoor High School exchange student Barbara Ann Vanston of Port Elizabeth, South Africa, will arrive in Daly City about August 19, according to Reverend Herbert C. Tweedie, president of the local American Field Service Chapter.

Miss Vanston will live with the Ellis Wiard family at 173 St. Francis Boulevard and Susan Wiard, a senior at Westmoor, will be her "sister" for the year, Rev. Tweedie said.

The exchange student wrote Rev. Tweedie that she was excited about coming to Westmoor.

"It all sounds almost too good to be true," she wrote. "It is quite amazing how many of our friends had hoped I would come to California and specifically near San Francisco. I shall do everything in my power to live up to expectations."

Miss Vanston is sponsored by the International Friendship Club of the school and the local citizen's committee for international exchange students. One third of the cost is borne by the student, one-third by her local high school and the host school, and one-third by community donations.

Witnesses to Attend Santa RosaConclave

Jehovah's Witnesses from Daly City and Pacifica will be among 59 congregations from the Bay Area, Sonoma and Napa counties to attend a four-day district assembly at the Sonoma County Fairgrounds in Santa Rosa on August 6-9.

According to William Marks, presiding minister of the Daly City Congregation, the convention is one of 62 arranged for the U. S. and Canada this summer by the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society of New York. A total attendance of 250,000 is anticipated with over 4,000 expected to meet in Santa Rosa.

"The purpose of the meeting," Mars said, "is to provide advanced Bible instruction for Jehovah's Witnesses that will enable us to more fully apply scriptural principles in our ministry. Quite fittingly the convention theme is 'Fruitage of the Spirit District Assembly.'"

There will be morning, afternoon and evening sessions devoted to Bible talks, discussions and demonstrations, Marks explanned.

The convention highlight will be a public Bible lecture on the final day at 3 p.m. by Robert L. Balzer, special representative of the Watchtower Society.

ADOPT STATEMENTS

Church Studies Racial Policies

The Broadmoor Presbyterian Church Session, offical board of the church, is making a monthly study to relate the current racial crisis with Christian concern and responsibility, according to Pastor Herbert Tweedie.

Resource material for study and action by the board is a manual prepared by the Commissions on Religion and Race of the San Francisco, San Jose and Redwoods Presbyteries.

The following statements were adopted by the local session.

Policy — "The hiring of professing Christian personnel for any office or function within this church shall not be restricted by the candidates' race, color or national origin."

Implementation — "This policy shall be a guide to all sessions or session committees in the engagement of part or full time personnel for paid positions within the church. Applications for employment openings will be accepted from the entire Christian community."

Intent — "The intent ofthi policy is to formalize our position and establish instructions to this church. A further intent is to welcome applications from individual members of racial minority groups for employment opportunities within the church on the same basis as other applications.

The second statement is on the policy for the church on the procurement of its services and supplies:

Policy — "Services and supplies will be solicited from those firms and business organizations which are known or acknowledged to be non-racially discriminating in employment and business practices."

Implementation — "This policy shall be a guide to the designated procurement committee or person of the session in arranging for services and supplies for the church. In the case of major contracts for building for modification, for continuing services, for supplies, insurance, banking, etc., this policy directs that fair emplmoyent clauses shall be included in all contracts.

DAVID STEIGER
Family Honored

Congregation Honor Family

David Steiger and his family were given a special service and "sendoff" by members of the Seacliff Community Church sunday evening following a slide and tape presentation of his work as a missionary jungle pilot in New Guinea.

The Steigers, who just sold their home in Linda Mar, are moving to the Los Angeles area, where Steiger will await an assignment to a field, probably Laos, later in the year.

The special service was a "This Is Your Life" account of the Steigers evangical activities as brought to light in a recent newpaper feature.

The Steigers came to Seacliff in February, 1963, as visitors and stayed to become active members of the church. Mrs. Steiger served as church organist during the past four months.

Pastor E. Clark Robb named Andrew Cadelinia to collect a special fund to aid the Stiegers in their missionary field work.

Judea Group Holds Dance

The Single Adults group of Temple Judea welcomed a "New Years in July" last Saturday, a dance complete with noise makers and hats.

Music was provided by Rudy Salvini and his orchestra. Door prizes were given.

Good News to Hold Series

Five nights of unique services with a special attraction for youth and children will be conducted by Rev. and Mrs. Lynn E. Wickstrom of Auburn, Monday through Friday, July 24, at the Good News Chapel in South San Francisco.

The services, to be held at 7:30 each night, will feature stories, object lessons, Bible verses and puppet shows with Happy Humpty, Mickey Monkey and their friends.

Reverend Wickstrom is a graduate of Bethany Bible College in Santa Cruz and a Korean War veteran. While in Korea Reverend Wickstrom held services for Koreans and ministered in the villages.

Mrs. Wickstrom is also a graduate of Bethany Bible College where she was active in many musical groups, both vocal and instrumental.

Rev. Donald P. Wertz is the pastor.

Swim Party Is Planned

A swimming party and barbecue at Flood Park in Menlo Park tomorrow is the site of this week's special event for members of the Junior Teen Club program sponsored by the Daly City Recreation Department.

A bus will leave Ben Franklin School at 4 p.m., stopping at the War Memorial Building and Bayshore School before proceeding to the park for the four-hour outing.

Cost of the trip, which includes bus transportation, accident insurance, swimming, and the barbecue is $1.25 for members and $1.50 for their guests. Sign-ups will be taken up to the departure time.

Swimming at Jefferson High on Thursday, July 23, is next week's special event. Coming soon on the Junior Teen Club calendar are a trip to Santa Cruz, rollerskating, Cinerama, a beach party, and a trip to the State Fair.

Three Given UC Awards

Three North County students were among 850 recipients of undergraduate scholarships for the coming academic year by the Berkeley campus of the University of California, Chancellor Edward W. Strong has announced.

The students are Evelyn M. Morabe of 430 Templeton Avenue and Myung H. Son of 75 Royce Way in Daly City and Barbara T. Sims of 1136 Balboa Way in Pacifica.

Items Collected By Sisterhood

The Sisterhood of Congregation B'nai Israel is collecting usable household and clothing articles for a rummage sale to be held in San Francisco's Hall of Flowers the early part of September.

Anyone wishing to donate items may call Mrs. Eddy Sennett at PL 5-3042.

'A Portrait of Jesus' Is Broadmoor Sermon Topic

"A Portrait of Christ" will be the title of Sunday's sermon by Rev. Herbert C. Tweedie at the 10 a.m. service at the Broadmoor Presbyterian Church on Eighty-seventh Street.

Beginning with the reply of Jesus concerning himself and his works, the sermon will point out the importance of man's response in portraying him today, according to Pastor Tweedie.

"The adult choir will sing "Break Forth Into Joy" under the direction of organist Jack Harder.

New members will also be received, Reverend Tweedie said.

A combined meeting of evening circles will be held at 8 p.m. tonight at the home of Mrs. Remo Cuniberti. A similar meeting of day circles will be held tomorow at noon at the home of Mrs. Neal Amick. The meetings are open to the public.

The men of the church held a breakfast Saturday with Dr. Merrill Alexander, M.D., of San Jose as guest speaker. The breakfast was followed by seminars.

Chairman of the breakfast was Curtis Edgerton. Tom House and Don Danielson were registrars, Ken Gillespie the song leader, Boris Stephen the breakfast chef, and Jack Harder and President W. Neil Andrus the servers.

FIRST PLACE
SWEEPSTAKES AWARD

The California Newspaper Advertising Executives association awarded The Times its sweepstakes award, first place in general advertising excellence for newspapers with circulations over 30,000. Thus, among the state's largest daily newspapers, The Times was adjudged to have the best all-around retail advertising . . . another important reason why The Times is a "must" daily reading habit for Peninsula families.

classified advertising

Winner of the Editor and Publisher magazine award for an entry in the promotion exhibit. The Los Angeles Herald-Exmainer was the only other winner in this category.

circulation

Award of Merit in the 1964 Editor and Publisher Newspaper Promotion contests. Others winning merit awards included the Philadelphia Bulletin, the nation's largest evening newspaper; the Milwaukee Sentinel and the Miami Herald.

The many awards that The Times wins year after year only substantiate what most Times readers already know. . . . The Times is the Number 1 newspaper in San Mateo County, carrying more local news, more pictures, more retail display ads, more classified advertising than any other newspaper. If you want the most of everything that makes up a good daily newspaper and want consistently outstanding quality in the news, pictures and advertisements . . .

Tempers Flare in CSM Speaker Battle

Tempers flared last week as Robert Tarver, chairman of College of San Mateo's Board of Trustees, angrily accused one of the board's outspoken opponents of lying. The name of San Francisco Archbishop Joseph T. McGucken was also inserted in the Communist-speaker-on-campus controversy.

When the fourth such meeting on the subject ended at 1:30 a.m. following three hours of debate before some 400 persons in the college gymnasium, the board reaffirmed once again its policy on "controversial issues" and declined to take action on a requested specific resolution as to whether or not Communist speakers per se should be permitted on campus.

Patrick Omlor, co-chairman of the Taxpayers 'Committee to Oppose Communist Speakers on Campus, elicited the explosive wrath of Tarver when he alleged that Tarver had told him by telephone before one of the earlier meetings that there was a "hell of a good chance" of the board taking action on the would be "satisfactory to your speaker controversy which would be "satisfactory to your committee."

Nearly livid, Tarver partially arose from his chair to snap at Omlor:

"I'm taking the stand to call you a liar. I never told you the board would take any particular action, Mr. Omlor, you will have this on your conscience for the rest of your life."

'Sit Down'

The chairman then gaveled down Omlor and ordered the latter to sit down.

Tarver's statement and action followed a verbal exchange between him and Omlor as Omlor attempted to read a letter sent him by archibishop McGucken in which the prelate stated:

"I certainly agree with you that the use of public facilities for those who advocate the destruction of our form of government seems to me very unwise. . ."

The archbishop stated further on in the letter:

"To me the question seems to be how to deal most effectively with the situation. My experience has been that very often the clergy can do best by speaking privately with the persons concerned. . . I know that some of the priests have talked personally and directly with the president (Dr. Julio Bortolazzo) and other officials.

"Another question to be considered is whether or not a public ban would be as good as a private policy quietly adopted. I am sure that a public ban would bring a strong outcry, along with some vilification and other smear tactics, which are so familiar to us. Usually we can get farther by letting people 'save their face' than by forcing them to a public reversal and humiliation. . ."

ARCHBISHOP McGUCKEN Enters Controversy

As Omlor read, Tarver freuently rapped the gavel, charging the speaker with reading out of context and ordering him to read the entire letter.

Omlor dwelled on the "saving face" statement, saying, "Attempting to get a public reversal from the board perhaps was a mistake on our part."

Tarver interrupted to say, "I publicly challenge your method of getting this from the archbishop and the use of his high office."

Serious Doubts

"A full report and dosier of the controversy) will be sent to Archbishop McGucken," the chairman stated. "If the letter you gave to the archbishop is in the same vein as the one you sent the board I would have serious doubts about his knowledge of the true facts concerning the matter here."

Tarver referred to the letter in which Omlor accused the board of canceling its June 24 meeting, at which the Taxpayers Committee had urged a large turnout to seek action on a resolution to ban Communist speakers on campus. The board said the meeting had never been scheduled, and, in fact, that for the past four years the board has never held a second regular meeting in June.

Before last week's meeting was over a total of 23 persons had expressed their views on the controversy. Among those expressing their support of the board were James Mitchell, secretary of labor in the Eisenhower administration and now a Hillsborough resident; Ray Daba, Redwood City attorney and a member of the State Board of Higher Education; Assemblyman Leo Ryan of South San Francisco; Luther Carr, president of the San Mateo County Bar Association, and James Tormey, county superintendent of schools.

'Shut Up'

Referring to "implications our schools are riddled with Communists," Assemblyman Ryan challenged those who so believe to come before his Assembly education subcommittee on personnel to identify such Communists under oath, and "if you cannot do that, shut up."

Mitchell stated that the College of San Mateo controversy "has all the aspects of a national problem."

IN DALY CITY

Chamber Names Three Directors

Daly City-Colma Chamber of Commerce President Herbert Sharpe named three new directors to the Chamber's 21-member board of directors Thursday. They are Don Monson, John Weurthner and Mona Baker.

The three new members will fill the vacancies created by the resignations of Walter McRae, Parkes T. Harris, and George Smith.

McRae moved his business to South San Francisco, Harris was transferred to the downtown office of First Western Bank, and Smith informed the chamber that he needed more time for his business.

Monson is an independent insurance agent, Weurthner is vice president and manager of Systematic Savings Incorporated in Daly City, and Mrs. Baker is active in community public relations.

In other business, Monson informed the chamber he had seen preliminary maps of Daly City's Knowles-Los Banos Street Improvement project and noticed that the city owns land that could easily be made into a municipal parking lot.

Chamber Manager Peter Markovich, who went over the map with Monson, pointed out that inadequate parking was one of the Mission Street merchants' biggest problems and suggested that the Chamber explore the matter further with city officials.

City Manager Edward Frank said he would have City Engineer William Chapman come to the directors' meeting on August 13 to fully explain the city's plans for the Knowles area. Some parking has been planned, he said.

On request of a number of Mission Street merchants, the chamber endorsed a plan to create a left turn at Mission and Hillcrest Drive for cars going north.

Cars are prevented from making a turn by a road divider.

In other action the chamber:

Heard a report from Frank on the city's efforts to have San Francisco extend its bus lines into Daly City.

Heard a report from Joseph Rohl, chairman of the chamber's road sign committee. Rohl said it would be too expensive to remove and store the chamber's large sign advertising meeting places of various service clubs on Junipero Serra Boulevard.

The individual club emblems will be removed and given back to the clubs but disposal of the big sign would be up to the road builders.

Authorized Markovich to look into the cost of plaques to give to retiring directors or officers in recognition of their service.

Discussed the publicity committee's efforts to get Daly City publicized as the site of the Republican convention and lauded Mrs. Baker, on its work on a recent television program "Salute to Daly City."

Markovich said the program was filmed at a cost of approximately $250 for later showing to schools and other organizations.

Man Fined For Attack

Adrian J. Van Poppel Jr., San Mateo contracting service owner convicted of assault and battery against his secretary, was sentenced last week in Central District Municipal Court to one year summary probation on condition that he pay a $50 fine.

His secretary, Mrs. Josephine D. Pease, Daly City, claimed that she was injured by Van Poppel last February 6 when she informed him she was quitting and he became enraged, pinning her to a table by pushing a desk against her and hitting her on the head with a telephone he ripped from the wall.

JESD ACCEPTS GIFTS

Christmas in July

It almost seemed like Christmas and Thanksgiving in July last week as the Jefferson Elementary School District's board of trustees gratefully accepted gifts from P-TA groups and students.

A gift with aesthetic leanings, $75, to be spent on trees and shrubs for the Jefferson School Annex, was presented by the school's P-TA.

Another P-TA group at Benjamin Franklin School presented $100 to be used to purchase books for the school library.

Not to be outdone by their elders, the four graduating sixth grade classes from George Washington School presented the board with $10 to be put toward new references material.

Trustee George G. Perry told the board that he wished there was some way the board could adequately express its gratitude to organizations and individuals who are so generous to the district.

Trustee Joseph Lewkowitz agreed wholeheartedly and suggested that perhaps the board should sponsor an annual tea and administration building tour for P-TA officers.

"This would give us an opportunity to meet these people personally and show them how we tick," he explained.

Chairman O. Wayne Douglas suggested that the trustees could attend P-TA meetings. His fellow board members agreed this would be a good way to support the organizations and express their gratitude at the same time.

Perry summed up the board's sentiments when he added:

"Our district is a good district and this excellence is due in great measure to the moving and genuine interest displayed by the people we serve."

Westlake Park to Become A 'Drag Strip' (Sort of)

Westlake Park will become a "drag strip" Sunday, July 26, from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m., thanks to the Daly City Recreation Commission.

But don't worry about the grass. The cars the "draggers" will be using aren't the kind used on the highway. They are miniatures that are used in a fast-rising sport called "slot racing."

Slot car enthusiasts will be competing on a 64-foot wood strip, about the distance between home plate and the pitcher's mound, under the sponsorship of the Arcers, a slot car club.

The commission granted the club permission to use the park at its regular monthly meeting last week.

In other action, Department Director Charles Vincent gave a report on the summer program, saying that activity at the playgrounds and at special events or classes has increased.

Part of the reason for the increase, he said, may be the department's brochure on the summer program that was sent to all Daly City homes.

Even participation in regular activities, such as the folk dancing groups sponsored by the Recreation Department, have increased because of the brochure, he said.

OPEN DAILY TIL MIDNIGHT — 6967 Mission St. Daly City

Economical But Savory Stuffing Tip

Give an economical veal breast a savory stuffing.

Stuffed Veal — Potatoes
Green Peas — Salad
Fruit Cup — Beverage

STUFFED VEAL

¼ cup butter or margarine
2 tablespoons finely chopped onion
3 cups soft bread crumbs
½ cup finely diced celery
½ cup raisins
2 tablespoons chopped parsley
1 teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
¼ cup water
2½ pounds boned breast of veal, with pocket

Melt butter, add onion and cook until onion is tender but not brown. Add crumbs, celery, raisins, parsley and seasonings. Cook and stir constantly over medium heat for about 5 minutes. Add water. Fill veal pocket with stuffing and sew or skewer together the edges. Place fat side up on a rack in an open pan. Roast in slow (325 degrees) oven for about 40 minutes per pound. Makes 6 servings.

Avocadoes Can Join in Summer Fun

California avocados join ever so naturally in summer fun.

Salads in avocado halves can be assembled "on location," whether it be in ship's galley, picnic grounds or your own backyard. Store the filling in a covered container and keep it cool.

Just before time to eat, slice avocados lengthwise into halves; remove seeds. Spoon filling into avocados. The thick skin of the summer varieties of California avocados provides a "built-in" serving container.

Any of these fillings will tempt outdoor appetites:

Strips of cooked beef, chicken or ham, onion rings, diced tomato and partially cooked zucchini slices chilled in garlic cheese dressing make a cool, hearty main dish in avocado halves.

Melon balls and pineapple cubes marinated in French dressing perked up with lemon juice, honey and celery seed add up to a tasty fruit salad when spooned into luscious halves of California avocado.

A mixture of catsup, sliced green onion and lime or lemon juice in avocado half-shells is delicious and gloriously simple. Enjoy it with fried chicken or shrimp.

Salad Time: Remember Nectarines

Summertime is salad-time—and time, too, for fresh nectarines from California.

For supper, toss fresh nectarine slices with strips of cooked ham, diced hard-cooked egg and green pepper, sliced red onion, ripe olive wedges, torn salad greens and French or Italian dressing. Heap into salad bowls; sprinkle with grated Parmesan cheese.

Launch a meal with a salad California-style. Chill sliced fresh nectarines with sliced green onion, sliced fresh mushrooms, dill weed, salt, pepper and oil-and-vinegar dressing. Serve in iceberg lettuce cups.

This fruit salad may begin or end a meal. Arrange fresh nectarine slices, fresh strawberries or raspberries, melon balls and fresh mint leaves in bowl. Drizzle with lemon juice and sprinkle with sugar; chill. Serve with cottage cheese for a luncheon main-course salad or as-is or with sherbet as a dessert salad.

Milk Feature at Delegates' Lounge

Milk, sometimes called Nature's most nearly perfect food, will serve as one of the official Republican National Convention beverages at the Cow Palace in Daly City, furnished to all delegates in their lounge through the courtesy of the dairy farmers of America, and their American Dairy Association.

The milk, available in the Flying Elephant Lounge at the Cow Palace, will be both white and chocolate, and delegates are offered unlimited quantities to ease the stress and strain of their convention work.

Pretty airline stewardesses will be on hand to dispense the beverages in the comfortable delegates' lounge, operated by the Air Transport Association of America.

Ted Shields, public relations director of the American Dairy Association, who has operated the milk bar at previous political conventions, reports that heavy use of milk is seen following hot and heavy sessions in the convention area. Delegates come from the floor to cool off, and relax for a few moments with America's number one beverage.

California Dairy Princess Heather McPherson will also be present at the convention to pour milk for the conventioneers.

COOL SALAD

Warm weather calls for coolripe olives into wedges, mix eating. Place shredded iceberg lettuce in salad or soup bowls; with salad dressing and a little lemon juice, crushed dried tarragon and chopped parsley an onion. Spoon into center of arrange drained canned crab each salad. Garnish with whole meat, strips of Cheddar cheese ripe olives. and tomato wedges on top. Cut

Asparagus, Carrots in Combination

Use end-of-the-season asparagus in this intersetingly different vegetable combination.

Liver and Onion Saute — Rice
Panned Asparagus and Carrots
Fruit and Cookies — Beverage

PANNED ASPARAGUS AND CARROTS

1 bunch medium or thick asparagus
¼ cup butter or margarine
¼ to ½ cup water
½ to ¾ teaspoon salt
1 cup thinly sliced carrots, cut crosswise on the bias

Cut off tough ends from asparagus; wash thoroughly and drain; pare off outer covering up to buds. Thinly slice stalks crosswise on the bias and halve buds lengthwise; there should be 3 cups. Into a 10-inch skillet turn all the ingredients. Boil gently, covered, until the asparagus and carrots are tender-crisp. Start with ¼ cup water and add more if necessary; lift cover and stir gently a few times. Makes 6 servings.

Super Express Train To Average 107 MPH in Fall

That's the scheduled running time between Tokyo and Osaka for the new super express bullet train which will be in operation this coming fall. As you might have concluded, this will be the world's fastest train.

On recent test runs over a special length of track, the super express bullet train was clocked at 160 miles an hour, a new world's record. Average speed between Tokyo and Osaka will be maintained on schedule at 107 miles per hour. This will be accomplished electronically by special automatic controls which prevent speeds in excess of 130 miles an hour.

The route, known as the Tokaido Line, was previously 345 miles long. By eliminating many of the curves and adding new tunnels and bridges it has been shortened to 320 miles.

Naturally this is the world's most modern roadbed because it was surveyed and built as a complete unit, fully planned in advance, and it has incorporated every technological advance in railroading.

Modern construction has little similarity to old style railroad building. For example, the original Tanna Tunnel took 16 years to build, and the new one was completed in 36 months. Not a single rail was laid by hand, but by mechanical rail layer. Ties were tamped with a multiple tie-tamper and welded rails moved by portal cranes.

The entire length of the line will be free of surface transportation grade crossings. Every modern safety device will be installed including surface wave pulse radar, wireless telephone, automatic train control and automatic route setting.

And what has all this accomplished?

Just this:

Formerly the running time for 345 miles was six hours. With the new Tokaido streamlined 320 miles of track, and super express trains, the distance will be covered in three hours, cutting the old traveling time between Tokyo and Osaka in half.

For the traveler visiting Japan, super speed in rail travel is definitely not advocated. First class trains, yes. Limited expresses, yes. But super expresses, definitely not.

Japan is far away. So why do it once over lightly? The visitor to this lovely country finds an endless series of beautiful vistas: Modern metropolises, ancient shrines and temple, picturesque seascape, mountains, lakes, waterfalls, hot springs resorts — beauty and charm everywhere, to be fully enjoyed in a leisurely manner.

Top Rodeo Champs Due At Salinas

The current world's championship titleholders in all riding and roping events will be seen in action at the California Rodeo which opens Thursday (July 16) and will continue through Sunday.

Also included among the 336 entries at Salinas are the majority of the cowboy contestants leading in the midseason standings for the 1964 world championships.

In addition, 142 of the West's outstanding horsemen and women will compete in horse show classes and barrel racing on the track.

World's champions to appear at Salinas include Dean Oliver, Boise, Idaho, all-around champion and calf-roping champion; Les Hirdes, Turlock, Calif., world's champion team roper; Bill Kornell, Palm Springs, Calif., world's champion bull rider; John Hawkins, Twain Harte, Calif., world's champion bareback bronc rider, and Guy Weeks, Abilene, Texas, world's champion saddle bronc rider.

Saddle bronc riding, the classic event of rodeo will, as always, be featured at Salinas.

Giving Weeks stiff competition in this event will be the ten leaders in the 1964 championship saddle bronc race as well as Casey Tibbs, the old master, who has won more saddle bronc championships than any other cowboy.

Tibbs will appear in a dual role at this year's California Rodeo. In addition to competing he will act as one of the four stock contractors who will provide their best broncs, bulls, steers and calves to test the mettle of the champions.

The other stock contractors are Andy Juaregui, Newhall; Ray Kohrs, Tres Pinos; and Bob Barmby who raises his own bucking stock on his ranch at Lockewood, Calif.

In addition to the rodeo, which starts each afternoon at 1:30 o'clock there will be a daily horse parade and Western entertainment each night of Salinas "Big Week."

Wednesday night (July 15) will be the Kiddie Kapers, county-wide children's parade; Thursday night will see an old-fashioned street dance and Friday night there will be folk and square dancing.

Saturday afternoon Terry Wilson, "Bill Hawks" of the "Wagon Train" series, will be presented with the California Rodeo television award and Saturday night he will lead the fabulous Colmo del Rodeo lighted night float parade.

MELON COCKTAIL

Cater to a crowd with this picture-pretty dessert. Cut thin slice from each end of a watermelon, then cut the melon crosswise into halves and stand on ends. Spoon out the fruit, discarding seeds. Combine melon chunks with 2 cans (1 lb. 14 oz. each) drained fruit cocktail; heap into melon shells. Cover with plastic wrap; chill well. Chop ripe olives and add to summery sandwich fillings.

PEANUT BUTTER COOKIES made with wheat germ are nutritious fare for a young set's summer dessert.

Pink-A-Boor Cookies for Teens

Preschoolers sometimes have their own secret language.

One little girl kept talking about the good pink-a-boor cookies she had at home. The neighbors who heard her were curious; on querying her mother they discovered that she meant peanut butter cookies!

Her mother also volunteered the information that she favored using wheat germ, that highly nutritious cereal, in the pink-a-boor cookies.

When we tried this recipe for wheat-germ peanut-butter cookies we did so two ways—once with the amount of baking soda suggested here, and once with twice the amount. We favor the half-teaspoon included in our directions because it gives a crisper texture and a better flavor than does the larger addition.

PINK-A-BOOR COOKIES
- 1¼ cups sifted flour
- ½ teaspoon baking soda
- ¼ teaspoon salt
- ½ cup wheat germ
- ½ cup butter or margarine
- ¾ cup chunk-style peanut butter
- ½ cup granulated sugar
- ½ cup firmly packed light brown sugar
- 2 eggs

Sift together the flour, baking soda and salt; stir in wheat germ. Cream butter, peanut butter, granulated sugar and light brown sugar; beat in eggs thoroughly. Gradually stir in the sifted dry ingredients. Shape dough into small balls using 1 tablespoon for each. Place a few inches apart on cookie sheets. Press down balls with a fork to make fairly thin. Bake in a moderate (350 degrees) oven until lightly browned, about 10 minutes. Makes about 4½ dozen.

Molasses Wafers for Tasty Tidbit

One of our most discriminating tasters asked for this recipe!

Pan-fried Lamb Chops Potatoes
Buttered Squash
Sliced Tomatoes
Fruit Cup Molasses Wafers

MOLASSES WAFERS
- ½ cup sifted flour
- ½ teaspoon baking powder
- Dash of salt
- ¼ cup sugar
- ¼ cup butter or margarine
- 3 tablespoons light molasses
- 2 tablespoons water
- 1-3 cup finely chopped walnuts or pecans

Sift together the flour, baking powder and salt. In a small saucepan stir together over low heat the sugar, butter, molasses and water; bring to boiling and remove from heat. Stir in the sifted dry ingredients; continue stirring, if necessary, until smooth; fold in nuts. Drop by level tablespoonfuls onto a lightly greased and floured cookie sheet; keep far enough apart so there are only 6 cookies to a large sheet. Batter should spread on sheet. Bake in a slow (325 degrees) oven until set and browned—about 12 to 15 minutes. Cool a few minutes to allow cookies to stiffen before removing with wide spatula to wire racks. Brush off any flour on bottom of cookies. Makes about 1½ dozen.

A Colorful Main Course Combination

For a colorful platter, try this main-course combination!

Corn and Bacon Stuffed Green Peppers
Broiled Tomatoes
Cheddar Rice
Hot Rolls
Berry Bowl Vanilla Wafers

CORN AND BACON STUFFED GREEN PEPPERS
- 6 medium green peppers
- Boiling water
- 2½ teaspoons salt
- 9 ears fresh corn
- 3 strips bacon
- 1½ teaspoons flour
- 3 tablespoons diced pimiento
- Pepper to taste
- 2 tablespoons butter or margarine

Wash peppers; cut a slice from each top; remove seeds and cores. Parboil in boiling water to cover with 1 teaspoon of the salt—about 4 minutes; remove from water; turn upside down to drain. Husk corn; score kernels and cut from cobs; scrape cobs to get all milky pulp. Fry bacon until crisp; drain and crumble; leave drippings in skillet. Mix corn with flour and remaining 1½ teaspoons salt; add to bacon drippings. Cook and stir until slightly thickened—about 3 minutes. Mix in crumbled bacon, pimiento and pepper. Fill peppers with corn mixture. Dot with butter. Place in a buttered 10 by 5 by 2-inch baking dish. Bake in a moderate (350 degrees) oven for 30 minutes.

Nectarine Coffee Cake 'Memorable'

A whiz to prepare with packaged orange muffin mix, "Nectarine Coffee Cake" with its golden fresh nectarine slices will turn a weekend breakfast or brunch into a memorable meal.

Nectarines are a "natural" for hot breads. Heating the fruit brings out its refreshing fragrance — an aroma that even the weariest warm-weather appetites would find practically impossible to resist.

Chilled pies and puddings also take on new flavor meaning when fresh nectarines are in the list of ingredients. A summer Waldorf salad with sliced nectarines is another way to enjoy this juicy fruit.

Of course, eating the fruit out-of-hand is probably the most popular — and easiest — means of getting the fabulous "feel" of fresh nectarines. There's no need to remove the fuzzless skin because it tastes as good as the rest of the fruit. And who would want to throw away that radiant red-and-gold skin in the first place!

Fresh nectarines from California will be in markets well into September to make a unique contribution to your summertime eating pleasure.

NECTARINE COFFEE CAKE
- 2 or 3 fresh nectarines
- 1 package (14 oz.) orange muf fin mix
- ½ cup brown sugar
- 1-3 cup flour
- ½ teaspoon cinnamon
- ¼ cup butter or margarine

Slice nectarines to make 1½ cups. Prepare juffin mix for full amount of muffins as package directs. Turn batter int greased 9-inch square pan. Mix brown sugar, flour and cinnamon. Cut in butter until mixture is of crumbly consistency. Place nectarine slices over top of batter; cover with sugar mixture. Bake in 400 degree (hot) oven 20 to 25 minutes. Cool about 10 minutes; cut into 3-inch squares and serve warm. Makes 9 squares.

PETITE LUNCHEON sandwiches, accompanied by dainty fruits, love tomatoes, and mushroom caps, will give an air of femininity and elegance to your summer luncheon. Deceptively simple, the luncheon sandwiches are spread with your favorite combinations of chicken and ham spread, then frosted with a blend of cream cheese and American blue cheese. The same zesty American blue cheese "frosting" is used to zip up the love tomatoes and mushrooms.

Lovely Summer Sandwiches

Lovely summer luncheons can be planned around elegant, yet simple fare. Tasty sandwiches, dainty accompaniments, petite fruits and a bit of sweet will complete your luncheon fare.

The sandwiches, filled with chicken and ham spread, will be extra glamorous when frosted with a blend of cream cheese and zesty American blue cheese. Garnishes are easy-to-make-flowers from sliced olives and green peppers.

The dainty accompaniments are delicate marinated mushrooms and delectable cherry tomatoes just brimming with the tangy flavor of American blue cheese. Petits Fours and coffee will round out your sweet and feminine luncheon.

To make four sandwiches; trim the crust from 6 slices of frozen fresh bread. Cut the slices in half. Spread 4 slices with ham spread. Top with bread. Spread that piece of bread with the chicken mixture. Top with remaining bread. "Frost" the sandwiches with the blue cheese mixture. Garnish with green pepper and sliced stuffed olives. Note —

MERR MUSHROOMS

Remove stems from caps. Boil caps in salted water for 2 minutes. Drain. Marinate caps in salad dressing from 1 to 2 hours. Drain. Stuff with blue cheese "frosting."

LUSCIOUS LOVES

Cut off stem tops of washed love tomatoes. Save tops. Scoop out centers. Fill with blue cheese "frosting" mixture. Cap with stem top.

SLICK CHICK SPREAD
(Makes 1½ cups)

- 1 cup chicken livers
- ½ medium onion, chopped
- 1 tablespoon butter
- 2 hard-cooked eggs, finely chopped
- 1 tablespoon mayonnaise
- Few drops of lemon juice
- Salt, pepper

Saute chicken livers and onion in butter until livers are done and onion is transparent. Finely chop the mixture. Stir in eggs, mayonnaise, and lemon juice. Salt and pepper to taste. Chill.

HAM-DINGER
(Makes 1¼ cups)

- 1 cup ground ham
- ½ teaspoon ground cloves
- ½ teaspoon dry mustard
- ¼ cup sweet pickle relish
- Mayonnaise

Mix ham, cloves, mustard and pickle relish together. Add enough mayonnaise to bind mixture. Chill.

Blue cheese "FROSTING"
(Makes about 2 cups)

- 1 8-ounce package cream cheese
- 1 cup crumbled American blue cheese (about 5¼ oz.)
- Milk or cream

Blend cheeses together. Tin with milk to spreading consistency.

Spicy Sauce Gives 'Touch' To Burgers

A spicy sauce that adds that extra touch to hamburgers.

Charcoal-broiled Hamburgers
Sloppy Charlie Sauce Rolls
Cooked Vegetable Salad
Fresh Peach Cake Beverage

SLOPPY CHARLIE SAUCE

- 1 tablespoon butter or margarine
- 1 medium onion and 1 small green pepper, coarsely chopped
- 1 clove garlic, peeled and halved
- 1 can (8 ounces) tomato sauce
- ¼ teaspoon each salt and sugar
- ½ teaspoon strong chili powder
- ⅛ teaspoon ground cumin

In an 8-inch skillet over low heat, melt the butter. Add onion, green pepper and garlic inserted on toothpick halves; cook gently until wilted, stirring occasionally — about 20 minutes. Stir in remaining ingredients; heat slowly. Remove garlic. Makes about 1⅛ cups—enough for 6 hamburgers made from 1½ pounds lean ground beef.

Clam Twist Pantry Shelf Quick Trick

This pantryshelf, quick-to-make recipe may come in handy.

Clam Twist Salad Bowl
Blueberries with Cream

CLAM TWIST

- 1 package (8 ounces) macaroni twists
- ¼ pound butter
- 1 medium clove garlic, crushed
- 1 can (10 ounces) minced clams
- ¼ cup minced parsley

Cook the macaroni twists according to package directions and drain. In the clean kettle, melt the butter with the garlic; add the clams, including their liquid. Add cooked drained twists. Reheat gently, mixing a few times, so twists absorb clam liquid. Sprinkle with parsley. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

Chocolate Cake Great For Dessert

- 1 chocolate cake layer baked in a round 8-inch layer-cake pan
- 1-3 cup apricot preserves

BRIGHT LIGHTS

by Lloyd Johnson

Seven Days a Week to Barney's Casino, July 22

Who ever started the nickname "Big hearted Barney O'Malia" hit the "jackpot," for sure, as the Lake Tahoe (South Shore) Barney's Casino owner is just that.

Barney's recently started a twice-a-day schedule to Lake Tahoe for those on the Peninsula. Because so many folks couldn't make the midweek trip, and by popular demand, Barney's is going all out to give you regular, seven-days-a-week service.

Greyhound Bus

Barney O'Malia

Starting Wednesday morning, July 22, the new Greyhound Bus schedule to Barney's Casino will originate in Redwood City at 10:40 a.m.; thence to San Mateo—11:00 a.m., Burlingame—11:05 a.m., then direct to San Francisco, Oakland and off to Lake Tahoe.

Now hear this: On the same day (July 22), Barney's Greyhound Bus will also depart from Redwood City at 6:40 p.m., San Mateo 7 p.m., and Burlingame at 7:05 p.m.

Summing it up: There will be a Barney's Casino Greyhound Bus schedule from the Peninsula seven days a week, twice a day, with Redwood City being the originating point. The refund will be $4 Sunday through Friday noon; $2 after 6 p.m. Friday, Saturday and holidays. This is the summer refund. There will be a substantial increase in the winter months.

Tickets for these fun trips are available right now. Barney's present schedule is in effect through Thursday, July 16, 9 a.m.

R. Thebeault

New musical hit on Broadway: Lance LeGault and His Dynamics with singer Stacy Adams at the Galaxie. They play Judy Mac's "Swim" dance music superbly and have some terific numbers of their own. Their new Victorian record, "I Lost the Good Thing," is hit-bound, too. . . . Roger Grimsby, ace television newscaster, is a steady at Ron's swank Surf House and is a big booster for the Friday noon-day fashion shows. . . . Princeton Inn's new Driftwood Room should have been named "Drift Inn," as that's just what folks are doing since its opening. Real cozy and plenty of atmosphere for important occasions. . . With one day advance notice, you will be able to enjoy Peking Duck (served with thousand-layered buns) or Melon Cup Soup (in shell) at Richard Ho's China Garden. From 4 to 10 persons.

THE EYES OF TEXAS ARE UPON THE SHERATON-VILLA HOTEL because the lively Texas delegation are quartered here during the Republican Convention. The fun-loving Texans will probably caucus often in Bloody Mary's, where Bill Tavake's Sounds and Dances of the Islands revue is featured nightly except Sunday. For elegant dining, the politicos, with 10-gallon hats and cowboy boots, will be welcome in the plush French Room at the fashionable San Mateo Inn. Famed Swiss chef, Arnold Bischoff, will probably come up with some special dishes designed to appeal to the hearty Texan appetites. . . . One of the merriest parties at Finocchio's in San Francisco this week was playing at Oakland's "Melodyland." Miss staged by Gisele MacKenzie, star of "Gypsy" MacKenzie hosted members of her company at the famous Broadway club. The show folks liked the Finocchio show so much, they stayed over for a second treat and were among the last to leave the club at closing time. . . . Southern California's Sultans of Surfing Music, The Cascades at Peppermint Tree, have been held over for two more weeks. And if this sunny beach weather keeps up, they'll ship up their surfboards from hometown La Jolla, Calif. According to amazed surfer Eddie Snyder, leader of the Cascades, there are more surfboards these days off S.F.'s Seal Rocks than Diamond Head in Hawaii.

Arnold Bischoff

Rudy Vallee, star of stage, radio, and television, has this to say of Omar Khayyam's restaurant in San Francisco: "There's only one Omar, and George Mardikian is his name, a master in the gentle art of satisfying the gastronomic urge."

Ed Sullivan Perfect Host

The Burlingame Hyatt House Hotel has long been a favorite stop for movie celebs — and with the Hyatt House Theater soon to open, General Manager Ed Sullivan will be on the double greeting stars of the theater world, as well.

One of Enrico Romano's favorite "on-the-town" stops is South San Francisco Bertolucci's. This Pacifica restaurant "king" gets around pretty good —and only to the best places.

You'll enjoy cultured Chinese cuisine when dining at the Belmont Charm Garden restaurant. The menu offers a delightful selection of the tastiest dishes of old China. Cockail service also available.

TV's Dick Stewart was amazed when, dining at Phil Lehr's, he had guys he hardly knew coming up for a big "Hello!" Dick finally figured it out — his dinner partners were Lee Ann Meriwether (Miss America of 1955), Susan Diane Bronson (Miss California of 1959) and Nancy Ann Fleming (Miss America 1961).

Pianobar entertainment for before and after-dinner hours is a big draw at Joe's of Westlake. Ditto, during the late-evening cocktail hour sessions.

Danny Thomas At Harrah's

Danny Thomas, third in a series of five consecutive top television stars to appear at Harrah's beautiful South Shore Room, opened a two-week engagement Tuesday night.

The five consecutive TV stars to appear at Harrah's are Andy Williams, Lawrence Welk (his engagement ends Welk, Danny Thomas, and, in the future, Ed Sullivan, (opening July 28), and Jack Benny (opening August 13).

The engagement is Thomas' second appearance at Harrah's. Piccola Pupa, the Moro-Landis Dancers, and Leighton Noble and his orchestra round out the program.

Headlining in the Stateline Lounge are the Mary Kaye Trio and western star Jimmy Wakely. Louis Prima, and Sam Butera and The Witnesses open July 16. And, of course, appearing all over Harrah's Tahoe, these days, is famed clown Emmett Kelly.

AL PINETTI
Exposition Fish Grotto

Al Pinetti Sil Oliva's "Right Hand"

Likeable Al Pinetti has a most enviable record under the Exposition Fish Grotto banner. He has been the right hand man to Owner Sil Oliva for the past 27 years. Al has watched this Fisherman's Wharf establishment grow from a "crab shack" to the splendid place it is today.

Going back a few years further, he was with Sil Oliva when he used to operate the Roof Garden Cafe.

Al, who lives in Burlingame, has two sons (Fred and Robert) and is a grandpappy, is food manager and maitre d' at the Exposition Fish Grotto.

Larry Wong of the Four Seas popped into Lew Lehr's for a steak dinner a few eves ago. Five minutes later, Lew and wife, Edith, grabbed a cab and went for a Chinese Dinner at the Four Seas. Turn about is Lehr play, Lew says.

At this time of the year it's nice to relax in a restaurant and cocktail lounge that's equipped with air conditioning. The Skylark has just that, plus a special steak dinner prepared by Chef Arnaud that's also attractive.

Whether your choice is a salad or full course dinner, the New Tivoli, one of the oldest Italian restaurants in North Beach, has the answers. Five banquet rooms for those special get togethers.

Sea food and Italian dishes cooked to order at Vince's makes this the "Fisherman's Wharf of the Peninsula." Be sure and visit the delicatessen and fish depot, the latest addition to Vince's "block of business." Take home orders a speciality here.

Many steak surprises are appearing on Uncle John's Pancake House menu. For my "cup of tea," give me buttermilk pancakes with an order of steak 'n' eggs. Great way to start or conclude a day.

Many Thanks

It is the wish of Lorraine and Nick Gust to thank everyone who helped make their 37th anniversary of Nick's restaurant and the grand opening of The Turtle such a happy occasion last week. For those who were unable to be seated for dinner: Please come back again and enjoy the hospitality, dinner and beverages afforded at these two delightful Rockaway Beach spots.

A&W Serving

The A & W Drive Inn, San Mateo branch, must have established some kind of a beverage and hamburger record since its recent opening. Hardly an hour goes by that this newest site serving the popular A & W Root Beer isn't jampacked with cars in every available parking space. The reason is quite obvious—top quality products and efficient service.

S.S.F. Gives A 5 Per Cent Salary Boost

South San Francisco's City Conucil went contrary to a trend being set by the rest of the cities in the county this year by granting an across-the-board pay boost of 5 per cent to all of its employes last week.

The council also passed a resolution setting the city's tax rate at $1.14 per $100 assessed valuation in order to raise $1,139,544. The rate is the same as last year's.

All of the other cities in the county have been giving 2½ per cent "cost of living" raises, with adjustments in certain classifications. The 5 per cent increase will cost the city approximately $82,000, City Manager Eugene Aiello said.

In other business, Fire Chief John Marchi once again won out on his demands to have developers leave enough room for his fire trucks to maneuver between buildings.

Marchi had opposed construction of a 65-unit apartment development on Holly Avenue because the developer had allowed only 16 to 20 feet between buildings.

The fire chief asked for and got a 28-foot clearance.

Marchi won a similar battle two months ago in a town house development planned in Westboro. The developers eventually changed 20-foot wide streets to 28 feet.

In other action, the council:

Took legal steps to begin the improvement of Butler Road, which will serve a large industrial area, the city dump and the Oyster Point Marina.

Authorized an expenditure of $17,000 for the installation of two signal lights on Junipero Serra Boulevard at Westboro Avenue and Clay Street intersections.

The signal lights, to be installed on a share-the-cost basis with the state, will be located near the spot where two boys were killed earlier this year.

Held over the second reading of an ordinance annexing Valley Park Center.

Held over an agreement with the county to take over police and fire services in the inhabited section of Westboro. The services are now provided by San Bruno.

Held over the proposed zoning of West Park, a $10 million planned community development in Westboro.

Aid Pledged For Pacifica Beach Plans

Assistance of any program of beach and shoreline development will be a prime purpose of the Pacifica Chamber of Commerce, its new president has declared in an inaugural message to all members.

John T. Simmons, who is Pacifica's acting postmaster as well as head of the chamber, noted:

"It is apparent that the destiny of Pacifica depends to a great degree upon the proper development of commercial recreation facilities along our ocean front." And he added:

"We might well say there are buried treasures along our sandy beaches."

Simmons said that with experience as a teacher and with a detailed and precise program of work, Pacifica will become "the city it was surely meant to be: a city of average size and considerable wealth, of comfortable climate and dramatic beauty—a city wherein the typical American is happy and proud to live."

Police Nab Ex-Convict In Burglary

A 31-year-old ex-convict from San Francisco was arrested early Wednesday morning as he came out the rear door of a small Pacifica sewing shop he allegedly had just burglarized, Pacifica police reported.

The downfall of Dwane Patrick Akridge came because the owner and occupant of an adjoining dry cleaners was apparently a light sleeper and heard him breaking into the Vera Stitch shop at 115 Manor Drive.

Richard Caparros, 11 Manor Drive, telephoned police shortly before 3 a.m. that he could hear someone jimmying open the rear door of the next door business establishment.

A few minutes after Rod Sinclair, member of a private merchants' patrol, arrived at the rear of the sewing shop, Akridge emerged.

Sinclair ordered him to put his hands in the air. He said Akridge kept attempting to remove a pair of white cotton gloves.

A few moments later Sgt. Ray Shipley and Officer Bruce Rivers arrived on the scene and hand-cuffed Akridge.

Officers said $8 taken from a cash register in the shop was found on Akridge. Contents of the register had been strewn around the shop. A pry bar was also found on the scene.

Officers said Akridge, who was booked on a burglary charge, admitted being on three years' probation from San Quentin. They said he has been arrested previously on a narcotics charge.

RING STOLEN

Cecilia Gardiner of New York said her platinum diamond ring, valued at $800, was stolen at the American Broadcasting Company broadcasting booth at the Cow Palace Saturday.

NOTE—In the above tabulation of the tides the daily tides are given in the order of the occurrence commencing with the early morning tide and the successive tides as they occur. On some days but three tides occur, the fourth occurring the following morning.

The columns at heights give the elevation of each tide above or below the level of Coast Survey chart surroundings. The numbers are always additive to the chart depths unless preceded by a minus sign or dash (-) when the numbers are subtracted from the depths given by the chart (U. S. Coast and Geodetic Survey)

Training provided. Age no barrier, but good character and car essential. Investment covers merchandise and supplies necessary to operate this valuable distributorship, which yields much higher than average profits.

FULL time distributors preferred, but will consider aggressive individuals for part time, capable of expanding operations.
